

Exhibit C
Additional License Provisions

1. GRANTEE shall not provide local exchange telephone services or other services directly regulated by the Texas Public Utility Commission ("PUC") without obtaining PUC approval to provide the service and paying any applicable access line fees pursuant to Texas Local Government Code Chapter 283.
2. GRANTEE shall own all lines and facilities used by it within the licensed area.
3. GRANTEE shall not lease, sell, permit or otherwise authorize others, who are not Certificated Telecommunications Providers under Texas Local Government Code Chapter 283, or who do not have a City of Dallas or state-issued video franchise, a license, or a permit, to use any or all of its lines, facilities, conduit space or transmission capacity in any line, cable or facility placed in the licensed area without the prior, written consent of the City of Dallas.
4. GRANTEE shall use its installations and facilities solely for itself, unless and until the other user has been authorized as set out in the prior paragraph, or until the City of Dallas has given its written consent.
5. GRANTEE shall not use its aerial/subsurface cable and/or fiber optic lines to provide cable services or other video services, as defined in Title 47, Chapter 5 of the United States Code, as amended (47 U.S.C.A., Section 521, et seq), or Chapter 66 of the Texas Utilities Code unless GRANTEE also possesses a cable or video franchise issued by the City of Dallas or the Public Utility Commission of Texas.
6. If GRANTEE desires to provide any telecommunications, video or cable services not authorized by this license, it agrees: (i) to pay a separate fee to the City of Dallas for the provision of local exchange telephone service, other telephone services, a service directly regulated by the PUC, cable services, other defined video services, other video services recognized by the FCC, Personal Communication Service or like service, and where necessary, (ii) to obtain a separate franchise, license or permit from the City of Dallas.
7. Should GRANTEE violate any of the terms of this EXHIBIT C, then the rights of GRANTEE under this license shall automatically cease and terminate and the provisions of EXHIBIT B shall control.
