SUBJECT April 24, 2023 Government Performance and Financial Management (GPFM) Committee, Development Services Department Monthly Update for March 2023
Technology

The land management software implementation project is in progress. An official kick-off date has been set for May 1, 2023. A team of subject matter experts from the Development Services, ITS support, and other key Departments have been identified and will lead the efforts of overseeing the successful implementation of the new system.

A contract for the Customer Management Queuing system for the Development Services Permit Center has been executed and implementation and is set to begin late April 2023. The Department has partnered with ITS on implementing and deploying the application.

Residential Metrics

In March 2023, the total number of New Single-Family permits that were initiated increased from 112 to 194 from the previous month. 1. Were the Fiscal Year 2021 top ten expense categories (uses) of the Development Services Enterprise Fund identified?

   Yes. The top ten expense categories (uses) for Fiscal Year 2021 were identified and reviewed.

   Additionally, three other expense categories (uses) were selected for review based on other factors including the account being over budget, payments to outside vendors through auto-disbursements, and a significant concentration of transactions that are charges from other departments. (See Exhibit 1).

2. Did the uses benefit the public good?

   Generally, yes. Nothing reviewed indicates the expenses were not intended for the benefit of the public good..

3. Were there any unusual financial transactions noted where the public good could not be explained?

   Generally, no. Twenty financial transactions were identified as unusual financial transactions due to supporting documentation not provided or not agreeing with the financial transaction amount or possible overpayment. Nineteen of the twenty financial transactions (95 percent) were resolved and concluded as not being unusual financial transactions. The remaining transaction was noted as an exception and is discussed in the City Forces expense category (use). (See City Forces).

Audit Results

The Development Services Enterprise Fund top ten expense categories were identified using a Fiscal Year 2021 YTD Expense Report run from AMS Advantage 3, the City's financial system. Within each expense category, a cursory review of the transaction descriptions (where available) and dollar amounts was performed. However, none of the financial transactions reviewed were identified as unusual financial transactions based solely on the description of the transaction and/or amount.

Sample transactions were randomly or judgmentally selected for a detailed review of the related supporting documentation. However, this review did not include an in-depth analysis of staffing levels, equipment, technology, and professional service needs to determine if they did or did not benefit the public good.

Top Ten Expense Categories

The top ten expense categories (uses) for the Development Services Enterprise Fund totaled $39.29 million of the $42.72 million Fiscal Year 2021 total expenses (92 percent). With three additional expense categories (uses) reviewed totaling $1.14 million, the Fiscal Year 2021 total expenses reviewed was $40.43 million (94.6 percent). See Appendix A (Exhibits 8 and 9) for similar data for Fiscal Year 2020 and Fiscal Year 2022.

As shown in Exhibit 1, five of the top ten expense categories (uses) are related to compensation and benefits and accounted for 70 percent of Fiscal Year 2021 total expenses. These categories (uses) are Salary Civilian, GASB Pension Exp – ERF/GASB OPEB Exp, Pension Civilian/Employer, Health Insurance/Employer and Overtime Civilian.

The remaining top ten expense categories (uses) record the following expenses:

- Professional Services – direct payments to outside vendors for goods and services.

- City Forces – activities performed by other City departments.

- General Fund Cost Reimbursement – overhead allocations of citywide administrative and support departments.

- Programming – technology services and equipment expenses.

- Credit Card Fees – merchant fees paid to credit card processing companies.

The three additional expense categories (uses) record the following expenses:

- Rents – facility lease payments.

- Department Support – activities performed by Development Services General Fund employees.

- Communications – telecom and communication expenses.

Compensation and Benefits

In Fiscal Year 2021, the Development Services Enterprise Fund employed an average of 272 employees at a cost of $17,630,937 and $447,661 in the Salary Civilian and Overtime Civilian categories (uses), respectively. Additional compensation and benefits expenses are recorded in the City Forces and Department Support expense categories (uses).

The Pension Civilian/Employer and Health Insurance/Employer expense categories (uses) represent the employer portions paid by the City on behalf of each participating Development Services Enterprise Fund employee.

The Pension Civilian/Employer amounts are calculated by multiplying the employee's compensation for the pay period by 14.14 percent, while the Health Insurance/Employer portion is $7,510 per full-time employee in Fiscal Year 2021.

Five pay period transactions from Fiscal Year 2021 were selected for review from the Salary/Civilian, Overtime Civilian, Pension Civilian/Employer and Health Insurance/Employer expense categories (uses). All were appropriately reviewed in the Workday payroll system prior to automatic posting to the general ledger, and adequate supporting documentation was provided.

The GASB Pension Exp – ERF and GASB OPEB Exp expense categories (uses) are the Development Services Enterprise Fund Pension – ERF (Employee Retirement Fund) and OPEB (Other Post-Employment Benefits) expense accounts.

The two expense accounts netted to $7.1 million in Fiscal Year 2021. Transactions posted to the accounts represent adjustments made to the related pension liability accounts.

The City Controller's Office calculates the adjustments needed based on guidance from the Government Accounting Standards Board, Statement 68, Accounting and Financial Reporting for Pensions and Statement 75, Accounting and Financial Reporting for Postemployment Benefits and Pensions. Two adjusting entries were reviewed (one from each expense account) and both had sufficient supporting documentation and were appropriately approved.

No exceptions noted for samples reviewed.

Professional Services

The Professional Services expense category (use) totaled $2.91 million in Fiscal Year 2021 and is used to record expenses related to engineering consultations and staffing services, software maintenance fees, file imaging and shredding services, cleaning services, and workplace staffing studies. See Exhibit 2.

Ten financial transactions were reviewed to ensure department approval, evidence of supporting documentation, and the expense benefited the public good.

City Forces

The City Forces expense category (use) totaled $2,615,308 in Fiscal Year 2021 and represents billings from other City departments or the Development Services General Fund for services performed on behalf of the Development Services Enterprise Fund. The amounts are manually calculated by the City departments performing the work. The Development Services Finance staff review and approve the related supporting documentation before it is sent to the City Controller's Office for a cursory review before recording in the City's accounting system.

In most cases, the amounts are the compensation and benefit expenses of the employees who performed the tasks; however, some City departments have established a fixed cost for specific tasks performed and calculate the amounts due by multiplying the fixed cost by the number of times the task was performed during the billing period. See Exhibit 3 and Exhibit 4 for the make-up of the Fiscal Year 2021 expenses.

Exception noted for reviewed sample.

Five City Forces transactions were reviewed, including three from Dallas Fire-Rescue and one each from the Sustainable Development and Construction (Real Estate Cost Recovery) and Court and Detention Services departments. All were appropriately approved and had sufficient supporting documentation. However, a billing exception and a segregation of duties observation were noted and detailed below:

Billing Exception – Overpayment of $22,612

The Sustainable Development and Construction (Real Estate Cost Recovery) transaction reviewed totaled $252,828.12 and covered the period of January 1 – October 6, 2020. Five employees in the Sustainable Development and Construction Department Real Estate Division performed services on behalf of the Development Services Enterprise Fund during the period of the transaction. The supporting documentation reviewed included the invoiced amount broken down for each employee by quarter. The detailed breakdown of the invoice amount for each employee indicated that invoiced hours from April 8 – May 5, 2020, for all five employees, were invoiced in the second quarter and duplicated in the third quarter, resulting in an overpayment of $22,612. Potential billing errors increase the risk that fees charged will not cover the expenses of the Development Services Enterprise Fund.

Additionally, one employee's hourly rate fluctuated up and down within the same quarter. Exhibit 5 lists the different hourly rates invoiced for this employee.

Exhibit 5:

We recommend the Director of the Department of Development Services:

A.1: Enhance review procedures to ensure the accuracy of billings from other City departments.

Segregation of Duties Observation

The Court and Detention Services Department provides security officers to the Oak Cliff Municipal Center and bills the expenses to the Development Services Enterprise Fund monthly. The reviewed transaction totaled $5,226.28 and covered the period from November 30 to December 31, 2020. The supporting documentation included copies of manually prepared weekly timecards with the days/hours the services were performed and the assigned security officer(s). The name printed at the bottom of each weekly timecard in the Supervisor line was the same as one of the Senior Security Officers working at the Center. With no other approval noted on the timecards provided to Development Services for reimbursement, it appeared that the Senior Security Officer was approving his/her own time. The Court and Detention Service Department Director was made aware of this issue and provided an email response to the Office of the City Auditor.

Per the response, the Court and Detention Services Department's reimbursable assignments invoicing process included multi-step approvals (Senior Security Officer, Lieutenant, and Captain) but it did not address the Senior Security Officer signing off on his own timecard. The Court and Detention Services Department Director has amended the process to require the Lieutenant to sign off on the Senior Security Officer's timecard when appropriate. A subsequent review of the Senior Security Officer's time in Workday showed that the Officer's time was appropriately approved by his Supervisor.

General Fund Cost Reimbursement

The General Fund Cost Reimbursement transaction totaled $1,772,018 in Fiscal Year 2021 and represents an allocated expense amount that originated from the City of Dallas' Fiscal Year 2019-20 Full Cost Allocation Plan. The purpose of the Full Cost Allocation Plan is to allocate the expenses incurred by citywide administrative and support departments to the remaining City departments. There are approximately sixteen citywide administrative and support departments whose expenses are allocated to the remaining departments.

The reimbursement transaction reviewed was appropriately approved and agreed to the amount documented in the Fiscal Year 2019-20 Full Cost Allocation Plan after a subsequent adjustment made by the Budget and Management Services Department. See Exhibit 6 for the Fiscal Year 2021 citywide administrative and support departments allocations to the Development Services Enterprise Fund.

Programming

Programming expenses invoiced to the Development Services Enterprise Fund totaled $1,390,601 in Fiscal Year 2021. Information and Technology Services manages all technology and communications equipment and related services for all City departments.

Each year, during the annual budgeting process, the Information and Technology Services Department assesses each department's current service levels, future service needs and related cost estimates to determine the annual budget amount that will be invoiced to each department throughout the fiscal year.

Once the annual budget is approved, the Information and Technology Services Department prepares a billing document (Statement of IT Fiscal Year Services and Associated Costs) that lists the equipment and services the department is receiving and the associated costs for each service.

The associated costs for each service in the billing document are calculated by multiplying the number of full-time equivalents assigned to the department at the time of the budget (288.53 full-time equivalents in Fiscal Year 2021 for the Development Services Enterprise Fund) by the established rate for the service. Additionally, any department specific software or equipment is charged directly to the requesting department.

Calculation of the department specific support costs varies depending on the service provided. Some services are based on the number of full-time equivalents, while others are based on actual usage.

The two transactions reviewed from the Programming expense category were appropriately approved, had sufficient supporting documentation and the service costs agreed back to the Statement of IT Fiscal Year 2021 Services and Associated Costs.

No exceptions noted for the reviewed sample.

Credit Card Fees

Services offered to citizens can be paid by cash, check or credit/debit card, and online or in-person at any of the Departments' district offices. All major credit cards including VISA, MC, Discover and AMEX are accepted for payment and batch-processed daily for settlement.

VISA, MC and Discover charge two processing fees: 1) interchange costs (variable percentages determined by the volume of transactions, type of card used and how it was entered); and, 2) service charges (flat costs per transaction to authorize, process and settle card transactions). AMEX charges a flat percentage for all card types.

In Fiscal Year 2021, the Development Services Enterprise Fund was charged $662,404 in credit card processing fees. Two merchant fee transactions, one each from VISA/MC and AMEX totaled $55,000 or 8.3 percent of total Credit Card Fees were reviewed.

No exceptions noted for the reviewed sample.

Rents

Development Services leases five facilities in various areas of the City to provide building inspection, plan review, and permit services to customers. The Fiscal Year 2021 rental amounts totaled $399,193, with monthly rental amounts ranging from $6,145 to $10,000 (See Exhibit 7). See Exhibit 10 for the map of district office locations.

Department Support

The Department Support expense category (uses) totaled $385,927 for Fiscal Year 2021 and is for services performed by the Development Services Administrative Services Team (General Fund employees) and billed to the Development Services Enterprise Fund.

Each quarter, the compensation and benefits expenses of the Administrative Services Team are allocated to the various operating units in the Development Services Enterprise Fund based on pre-established percentages of time spent and full-time equivalents assigned. The pre-established percentages of time spent, which were last changed in 2019, range from 10 – 31 percent (depending on the operating unit) and the full-time equivalent factor (3 full-time equivalents are prorated to the various operating units). The Construction Plan Review unit is assigned the highest time-spent percentage (31 percent) and full-time equivalent factor (.90).

The eight transactions reviewed were appropriately approved, had sufficient supporting documentation and were calculated based on the established criteria.

No exceptions noted for reviewed sample.

Communications

Communications expenses totaled $355,129 in Fiscal Year 2021 and include annual charges for VOIP Phone Lines (426 lines) and Transport & Long-Distance services.

The six transactions reviewed were appropriately approved and agreed to the supporting documentation and the base rates noted in the Statement of IT Fiscal Year 2021, as applicable.

TO: Mark S. Swann – City Auditor

SUBJECT: Response to Audit of the Department of Development Services Expenses

This letter acknowledges the City Manager's Office, and the Department of Development Services received the Audit of the Department of Development Services Expenses and submitted responses to the recommendations.

Development Services plays a critical role in providing safe, sustainable, and resilient structures for the City and its residents.

The department has prioritized a culture of "Service First" by removing barriers encountered during the permit process. The department streamlined its process to expedite the issuance of permits and facilitate a more convenient scheduling process for residents and customers. Development Services started a Lunch-and-Learn program to train clients and developers on the permitting process. Pop-Up Saturdays have been implemented, to provide convenient weekend hours to guide homeowners through the permitting process and request a permit. The department has also doubled staff in the call center to help with inbound calls related to permitting requests, demonstrating a commitment to "Service First."

We are pleased the thorough audit concluded the top ten and additional expense categories (uses) of the Development Services Enterprise Fund were incurred for the benefit of the public good.

However, we recognize there are always opportunities for improvement. Management agrees to strengthen review procedures to ensure the accuracy of billings from other City departments.

We appreciate the professionalism and quality of work demonstrated by your staff throughout this engagement.

Civil Service Board Rules and Regulations Revisions
[Jarred Davis, Director, Civil Service]

Presentation Agenda

- Background
- Civil Service Board Overview
- Civil Service Function
- Revision Process
- Revision Highlights
- Next Steps
Background

- The Civil Service function was born out of the "good governance" paradigm predicated on the belief in a public entity's sacred duty to safeguard the public trust through a system of checks and balances - the foundation of democratic governance.

- Civil Service was first incorporated into the Dallas City Charter in 1930. In 1968, Dallas residents voted to add a merit system of employment, which includes the department's present-day recruitment, testing, and assessment functions.

- Currently, the Civil Service department supports the recruitment and assessment needs of roughly 83% of the City of Dallas' workforce.

Civil Service Board

Seven-member body, appointed by Council and Mayor, authorized to adopt, amend, and enforce a code of rules and regulations, subject to City Council approval, to ensure employment and promotion is based on merit and fitness by doing the following:

• Overseeing the design of personnel selection methods to ensure fairness and effectiveness in the selection of applicants for City employment.
• Providing an objective forum through which employees can pursue grievances regarding claims of discrimination and misinterpretation or misapplication of Civil Service rules.
• Serving alongside members of the Civil Service Adjunct Panel to administer Trial Board hearings that grant due process to demoted or terminated employees.

Civil Service Department

Recruiting & Examining Unit

Advertises jobs to both current and prospective employees.

Determines the minimum qualifications in conjunction with hiring managers.

Evaluates applicants' eligibility.

Administers written and computer-based exams.

Test Validation and Assessment Unit

Develops and validates selection tests for civilian and uniform positions.

Performs job analyses for talent assessment tool design purposes.

Ensures selection procedures used by the City are legally defensible.

Administration Unit

Manages Trial Board and Administrative Law Judge hearings.

Oversees the rehire eligibility hearing process.

Analyzes and manages department budget.

Revision Process

- A subcommittee of the Civil Service Board was formed to review and recommend revisions to update and organize the existing rules, delete obsolete and outdated rule provisions, and make the rules more user-friendly for employees.

- The subcommittee consisted of Board Chair, Mr. Terrence Welch, Ms. Gwen Satterthwaite, and Ms. Shana Hope Khader. Assistant City Attorneys Jennifer Huggard and Laura Morrison, and Board Secretary Jarred Davis provided drafting, reviewing, and editorial support.

- Additionally, the subcommittee consulted with internal stakeholders such as the Dallas Police Department, Dallas Fire-Rescue, and Human Resources.

Revision Highlights

- Significantly reduced the number of pages with the elimination verbatim references to the Charter or City of Dallas Personnel Rules.

- Established criteria for rehire eligibility hearings conducted by the Civil Service Board.

- Updated minimum qualifications requirements for entry-level sworn positions in DPD and DFR.

- Updated DPD promotional ranks minimum qualifications requirements.

- Established and added minimum qualifications for the newly created DFR rank, Single Function Paramedic Officer.

- Incorporated lateral hiring provisions for DFR positions.

Section 2.2   Adoption and Enforcement of Civil Service Rules and Regulations. These rules and regulations are created, adopted, and enforced as required under Chapter XVI of the Dallas City Charter. Section 2.5   Annual Report by the Civil Service Board to the City Council. The civil service board shall make an annual report to the city council at the end of each fiscal year, giving a complete statement of the board's activities and containing such recommendations with regard to improving the efficiency of the civil service as it may deem advisable.

RULE 3:   CIVIL SERVICE APPOINTMENT AND PROMOTION.

Section 3.1   Appointments in the Competitive Class.

(a)   Appointments to fill vacancies.

(1)   Every vacancy in the classified service not filled by promotion, transfer, reinstatement, or demotion shall be filled by appointment from the eligibility list established for that position upon the requisition of the city manager. Appointments shall be made to all positions in the competitive class by selection of persons certified from an eligibility list resulting from open, competitive employment applications and examinations held by the board, except as otherwise provided in these rules and regulations.

(2)   Nothing in these rules and regulations shall prevent a department director from designating a person to fill a position in a higher classification for a period of time and for that person to receive interim assignment pay, in accordance with applicable procedures. Interim assignments are not considered appointments or promotions.

(b)   Submission of applications. Except as provided in these rules and regulations, no position in the classified service may be filled except after posting on the City of Dallas website and in any other format and manner approved by the civil service department and an evaluation of candidates conducted in compliance with these rules and regulations. Applications must be submitted to the civil service department not later than the date specified in the job or examination announcement and shall be complete at the time of filing. Each individual who submits an application as provided in these rules and regulations and meets the minimum qualifications for a position shall be considered a candidate for that position unless otherwise prohibited under these rules and regulations. No application for employment shall remain on file for more than one year from the date of the application.

(c)   Job qualifications in postings. Postings for positions in the classified service shall specify the required minimum qualifications for the position and may specify other preferred qualifications relevant to the position.

(d)   Civil service board to establish minimum qualifications. The board shall establish and announce the necessary minimum qualifications for any position subject to this section. The minimum qualifications for a position may be revised by the board and may include, but not be limited to, requirements as to education, training, and experience, and other qualifications deemed necessary for the position. Nothing in this section prohibits the specification of preferred qualifications for a position.

(e)   Civil service employment examinations. The board is authorized to prescribe and prepare the nature, type, and extent of examinations deemed necessary to fairly test the relative qualifications and fitness of applicants. All examinations shall be designed to test the relative qualifications and fitness of applicants to discharge the duties of the particular position they seek to fill. Every examination shall be conducted under the direction of the board, or its designated examiners, free from the presence, participation, or influence of any person other than the examiners or experts employed by the board.

(f)   Ordering reexamination. The board has the power, whenever in its judgment the interests of the public service require it, to order a reexamination of applicants for any position, and the power to correct, amend, or revoke any schedule, register, or other paper or record where it appears that an error or injustice has been done, or where any person whose name appears upon the eligibility list has for any reason become incapacitated for appointment in the public service, to strike such name from the list. The reason for such action shall be recorded in the minutes of the board.

(g) Physical examinations. In addition to completing an application for a position, an applicant may be required to submit to a physical examination and/or test, as deemed necessary by the board, to determine the fitness of applicants for the position for which they applied.

(h) Disqualification of applicants. The board may disqualify applicants for a position, and if so, shall state the reason for disqualification and retain the reason for disqualification in the applicant's application records. Disqualification may occur for an applicant who is found to lack any of the established minimum qualifications for a position or who otherwise lacks a requirement for a position, as established by the board. Disqualification may occur for an applicant who made a false statement, or has practiced or attempted to practice any deception or fraud in their application, in their examination, or in securing their eligibility for appointment. The board may delegate this authority to the secretary.

(i) Rehire eligibility of former city employees. The board may deem ineligible applicants for a position in the classified civil service, who were previously employed by the city and in situations in which the city has designated the former city employee as ineligible for rehire, or provisional for rehire. In these situations, applicants shall be deemed ineligible for rehire for a minimum of two years from the date of separation of city employment. If, after two years has elapsed since separation of employment, the former city employee seeks to apply for a position in the classified service, the person shall submit a request for a hearing before the board. To qualify for rehire eligibility, a former employee must demonstrate to the board that he or she has the ability and desire to be a productive and successful city employee, and there are no other significant indications that rehiring the former employee would be inappropriate. Factors for the board's consideration may include, but are not limited to: whether the former employee has accepted responsibility for his or her actions that led to the separation of employment, the severity of the misconduct that brought about the separation of employment, and the former employee's work history since separation of employment. Former sworn service employees who were terminated, resigned in lieu of termination for dishonesty, theft, misconduct, or disregard of public trust, as defined in the personnel rules, adverse conduct as defined in Dallas Police Department Code of Conduct Rule 4.3, unnecessary or inappropriate use of force as defined in Dallas Police Department Code of Conduct Rule 4.10, or adverse conduct as defined in the Dallas Fire-Rescue Department Manual of Procedures Code of Conduct Rule 702.02 are permanently ineligible for rehire with the City.

Section 3.2   Eligibility Lists.

(a) Eligibility list determination. An eligibility list shall be prepared by the board for each position in the classified service from candidates who have been found minimally qualified after a review of an employment application. Eligibility lists created from positions that do not require a competitive examination shall be prepared without any ranking or order of preference. If the position requires a competitive examination, the eligibility list will be prepared in order of merit and fitness as shown by the respective scores of the aggregate marking. When two or more eligible candidates have equal average scores on an examination, they shall have equal rank on the eligibility list. Eligibility lists prepared without competitive examination shall be forwarded to the departmental appointing authority, to allow the appointing authority to select candidates for interview and selection for appointment. Non-employee eligible for sworn service appointment may be removed from the register after twelve months from the date of examination. Following selection and appointment, the appointing authority shall notify the board secretary. Once the appointment is made, the appointed person's name shall be stricken from the eligibility list.

(b)   Supplementation of eligibility lists. Eligibility lists for each position may be supplemented periodically as the personnel needs of the city and the principle of open competition may warrant.

Section 3.3   Probationary Periods.

(a)   Extension of probationary period by board secretary. Probationary periods may be extended to allow six months of on-the-job work performance or completion of any written prerequisites to employment or promotion. When injury or other circumstances causes an extended approved absence, or other circumstances exist, that prevent the full and fair evaluation of an employee during initial probation, the employing department director may request extension of the probationary period within 10 working days of the conclusion of the absence or situation, or the scheduled end of the probationary period, whichever occurs first. The board secretary may approve the extension not to exceed a total of six months on-the-job work performance, not including the time period during which the full evaluation of work performance is not possible, or completion of any written prerequisites to employment or promotion. However, extensions shall not be granted where indications of unsatisfactory attendance as defined by the personnel rules are present. The board secretary shall report granted extensions periodically to the board for review.

(b)   Extension of probationary period by civil service board. Probation may be extended by the board to include the entire period of training of a formal apprenticeship training program. When an extension is approved, employees will be informed prior to employment and will complete probation on successful completion of the training program. The secretary may extend probationary periods on behalf of the board.

(c)   Probationary periods for specific positions. In addition to the provisions for extension of probation provided in Subsections 3.3(a) and (b), the following additional provisions for specific positions apply:

(1)   Probationary security officer. Probation for the classification of probationary security officer shall end six months following completion of the required classroom training.

(2)   Sworn employees. The probationary period for sworn employees continues until the sworn employee has completed six months of service as a probationary police officer, probationary fire-rescue officer, probationary fire prevention officer, or probationary single function paramedic officer, as applicable.

(3)   Civilian 911 call takers or dispatchers. Probation for the classification of civilian 911 call taker or dispatcher ends six months after completion of required classroom training.

Section 3.4   Appointments in the Non-Competitive Class.

(a)   Scientific, professional, and expert positions deemed non-competitive class. Classes requiring peculiar and exceptional qualifications of a scientific, professional, or expert nature, upon satisfactory evidence that competition as evidenced by written examination is impractical and that positions in these classes can best be filled by the selection of designated persons of recognized attainments, the board may, by a majority vote, suspend competition and declare these classes to be noncompetitive. All suspensions must be recorded in the minutes of the board and the board shall, from time to time, review all suspensions to determine if the best interest of the city is served by continuing these classes in the non-competitive class.

(b)   Part-time, seasonal, and temporary positions. Time-limited positions filled on a part-time, seasonal, or temporary basis are considered to be in the non-competitive classified service and may be filled either by the reappointment of a former part-time, seasonal, or temporary employee previously qualified to perform the same or similar work, or by appointment from a non-competitive eligibility list of those eligible who have filed applications and who meet the minimum requirements for the position for which they have filed applications.

Except in instances of the creation of a new rank, the provisions of this subsection do not apply to any employee in a position reclassified to a higher existing rank in the sworn police and fire services.

(k)   Promotion procedures during extraordinary conditions. When the restriction of funds, department reorganization, or other extraordinary conditions influencing the effective operation of either the police department or fire-rescue department warrant promotion procedures other than those contained in this rule, the civil service board may approve specially designed strategies to address such needs. Such strategies should seek to maximize competition, generally for a limited time with periodic review with the goal to return standard promotional procedures when conditions warrant.

Section 4.3   Sworn Service Certifications and Promotions in the Dallas Police Department.

(a)   Eligibility for promotion. Promotions to all classified positions in the police department shall be made from eligibility lists created as a result of promotional examinations administered to departmental employees meeting the minimum requirements in this subsection or as otherwise provided. Those candidates who will meet the eligibility criteria for any promotional rank prior to six months following the administration of an examination may compete on that examination, but will not be eligible for promotion to the higher rank until they have successfully completed the service requirements for promotion referenced in this section.

(c)   Newly classified positions. The civil service board shall have the right to establish promotional requirements for any new classified position that may be established and any existing classified position that may be modified or changed so as to affect its relationship with other classes.

(d)   Promotional probation. Promotion of any department employee is not deemed complete until a period of six months has elapsed from the date of appointment to the higher classified position. If, during the six-month period, the promoted employee does not merit the promotion as determined by the chief of police, the employee promoted shall be returned to the rank or classified position held by him or her at the time of promotion. This is done without any right of appeal by the employee, or by any required showing that his or her efficiency has fallen below the minimum requirements for the position.

(e)   Promotional examinations. On any departmental examination, the names of those individuals making passing grades shall be placed on an eligibility list. Where the promotional examination has consisted in part of an assessment center, the promotional eligibility list shall remain in effect for a period not to exceed 18 months from the date the list is established or is exhausted. Lists that are established and do not include an assessment center shall be in effect for one year. For purposes of calculating effective dates of eligibility lists, each period begins at 12:00 a.m. (midnight) on the date the certification of eligibility is made to the police department and ends at 11:59 p.m. on the following 365th or 548th day, as applicable. Within 90 days after receiving notification of a vacancy in any classification filled under this rule, unless an eligibility list is in existence, the civil service board shall announce an examination to create an eligibility list.

(f)   Serving in higher positions and pay. Nothing in these rules and regulations prevents the police chief from designating a person to fill a position in a higher classification for a period of time and for that person to receive the pay appropriate for the temporary assignment, in accordance with applicable procedures. Any temporary assignments in a classified position that extend beyond 180 consecutive days must be approved by the civil service board. Temporary performance of the duties of any higher position by a person who has not been promoted in accordance with these rules and regulations shall never be construed as a promotion of the person, and the temporary assignment shall not affect that person's status on either the eligibility list or eligibility for certification for a permanent promotion.

Department members who have already been transferred from the emergency operations division to the fire prevention division as of January 9, 2008, and have been certified by the State of Texas as fire inspectors, are exempt from the provisions of this paragraph.

(8)   Driver/engineer. Fire-rescue department members who have completed two years of service after completing probation as a fire-rescue officer or currently hold the rank of second driver, and are a licensed paramedic, shall be eligible to test for promotion to driver/engineer. Fire prevention personnel who laterally transfer to emergency operations must successfully complete training and obtain certification as a fire-rescue officer and paramedic. He or she then must serve as a fire-rescue officer in emergency operations for two years before becoming eligible to test for promotion to driver/engineer.

(9)   Fire lieutenant. Fire-rescue department employees who have served in the department for four years and who have served as driver/engineer for six months immediately prior to the examination shall be eligible to test for promotion to fire lieutenant.

(10)   Fire prevention lieutenant. Fire-rescue department employees who have served in the department for four years and who have served as senior fire prevention officer for six months shall be eligible to test for promotion to fire prevention lieutenant.

(11)   Fire captain. Fire-rescue department employees who have served as Fire Lieutenant for at least one year and who have been in the department for a total of five years shall be eligible to test for promotion to fire captain.

(12)   Fire prevention captain. Fire-rescue department employees who have served as fire prevention lieutenant for at least one year and who have been in the department for a total of five years shall be eligible to test for promotion to fire prevention captain.

(13)   Battalion-section chief. Fire-rescue department employees who have served in the department for seven years and who have served as fire captain for 18 months shall be eligible to test for promotion to battalion-section chief.

(14)   Fire prevention section chief. Fire-rescue department employees who have served in the department for seven years and who have served as fire prevention captain for 18 months shall be eligible to test for promotion to fire prevention section chief.

(b)   Completion of service requirements. Where experience in a lower rank is made a part of the requirements for a classified position, the applicant must have been appointed to a permanent position in that rank as a result of passing a promotional examination and have received the pay for that rank. Those candidates who will meet the eligibility criteria for any promotional rank prior to six months following the administration of an examination may compete on that examination, but will not be eligible for promotion to the higher rank until they have successfully completed the service requirements for promotion referenced in this section. Nothing in these rules and regulations prevents the assignment of personnel within a rank from one division to another as their training and qualifications permit.

(c)   Newly classified positions. The civil service board has the right to establish promotional requirements for any new classified position that may be established and any existing classified position that may be modified or changed so as to affect its relationship with other classes.

(d)   Promotional probation. Promotion of any department employee is not deemed complete until a period of six months has elapsed from the date of appointment to the higher classified position. If, during the six-month period, the promoted employee does not merit the promotion as determined by the fire chief, then the employee so promoted shall be returned to the rank or classified position held by him or her at the time of promotion. This is done without any right of appeal by the employee, or by any required showing that his or her efficiency has fallen below the minimum requirements for the position.

(e)   Promotional examinations. On any departmental examination, the names of those individuals making passing grades (including assessment exercise, where applicable) shall be placed on an eligibility list. Any promotional eligibility list shall remain in effect for a period of 18 months from the date the list is certified. Lists that are established and do not include an assessment center shall be in effect for one year. For purposes of calculating effective dates of eligibility lists, each period begins at 12:00 a.m. (midnight) on the date the certification of eligible is made to the fire-rescue department and ends at 11:59 p.m. on the following 548th day. Within 90 days after receiving notification of a vacancy in any classification filled under this rule, unless an eligibility list is in existence, the civil service board shall announce an examination to create an eligibility list.

(f)   Serving in higher positions and pay. Nothing in these rules and regulations prevent the fire chief from designating a person to fill a position in a higher classification for a period of time, and for that person to receive the pay appropriate for the temporary assignment, in accordance with applicable procedures.   Any temporary assignments in a classified position that extend beyond 180 consecutive days must be approved by the civil service board. Temporary performance of the duties of any such higher position by a person who has not been promoted in accordance with these rules and regulations shall never be construed as a promotion of the person and such temporary assignment shall not affect that person's status on either the eligibility list or eligibility for certification for a permanent promotion.

RULE 5:   REDUCTION IN FORCE, REORGANIZATION, AND TRANSFER.

Section 5.1   Reductions in Force—Civilian Employees.

(a)   Identification of affected employees. This section applies to employees in the classified civil service and unclassified labor class, which includes all ordinary unskilled labor.

(b)   Creation of reduction-in-force register. Whenever it becomes necessary to reduce the workforce because of lack of work or lack of funds, the director of the affected civil service department shall request that the board secretary prepare a reduction-in-force register and identify the classifications from which reductions will occur. Civil service will provide seniority lists on request for departments covered by civil service (i.e. "civil service departments") and will monitor reinstatement rights of employees in the civil service, as defined by the charter. In departments having major divisions that perform substantively different activities, the director shall identify which divisions are to be affected. Department directors should request seniority lists in a timely manner.

(c)   Listing of affected employees. The names of incumbents in the affected classifications shall be listed in order of length of service with the city since their last appointment. Temporary and probationary employees will be listed first, followed by non-probationary employees with the least senior being first, the most senior being last. Where subdivision of a position classification is requested, the reduction-in-force list shall be subdivided, provided that no reorganization or transfer of work units between divisions has occurred within the six months immediately preceding the request.

(d)   Order of layoffs. Employees in positions in the affected classification who are paid and qualified in different classifications shall be removed from the affected classification and placed in their proper classification. Temporary employees and employees serving their initial probation will be laid off first. Employees serving in a probationary status following promotion will be returned to their prior classification, provided the prior classification is also not being eliminated and provided the prior classification is vacant and was a classified position. After all employees identified have been removed, the remaining employees will be laid off in reverse order of seniority, except for allowable and authorized exemptions in Subsection (e).

(e)   Exemptions. For each affected classification or subdivision within each department, the department director may exempt one or more less senior employees based on demonstrated and documented specialized skills or documented superior performance to the next most senior employees. The number of allowable exemptions is based on the number of employees in the classification as follows:

Number of Employees   Number of Allowable Exemptions

Number of Employees	Number of Allowable Exemptions
2 to 5	1
6 to 15	2
16 to 25	3
26 to 40	4
41 or more	10% of the classification size rounded up to the nearest whole number

(f)   Reduction in force transfer. An employee about to be laid off because of lack of work or funds may be transferred to fill a vacancy in any other department in a class equal to or lower than his or her present class, provided that the transfer meets the approval of the appointing authority in the department where the vacancy exists, and provided that the employee is willing to accept the proffered transfer. If more than one employee is interested in being transferred to fill the vacancy, then the appointing authority in the department must hold a competitive process to select the most highly qualified candidate for the transfer. If the employee declines the transfer, then the employee will be laid off as provided in this section. A transfer is not permissible when it is requested to avoid a reduction in force and when there are persons of greater seniority in the same classification about to be laid off.

(g)   Vacancies after layoff. If an employee covered by this section is laid off through lack of work or lack of funds, and if within a period of two years thereafter a vacancy should occur in the same department and in the same or in a lower class, the employee shall be reinstated in the vacant position, provided that he or she is willing to accept the proffered employment. If the vacancy is in the same class, he or she shall be reinstated without examination, but if in any other class, he or she shall be required to pass the regular examination for that class before reinstatement.

(h)   Preference for reinstatement. When more than one laid off employee qualifies for reinstatement under this rule, preference is given to the employee laid off last.

(i)   Reinstatement; rate of pay. When an employee has been reinstated to or employed in a position at a rate of pay lower than the rate received before layoff, the employee will continue to have the right of reinstatement to any vacancy that becomes available at or up to his or her previous rate of pay during the two-year period immediately following the layoff.

Section 5.2   Reductions in Force—Sworn Service.

(a)   Layoffs on basis of seniority. Whenever it becomes necessary to reduce the force in the Police and Fire-Rescue Departments in the sworn class of police officer, fire-rescue officer, or fire prevention officer, the order of layoff is determined on the basis of seniority as provided in Section 5.1. Whenever it becomes necessary to reduce the number of positions in any class higher than that of police officer, fire-rescue officer, or fire prevention officer, the least senior in terms of length of service in the rank shall be reduced to the next lower class and the least senior in the said lower class shall be reduced, and so on down. Non-sworn employees of the Police and Fire-Rescue Departments are reduced according to the provisions in Section 5.1.

(b)   Vacancies after layoff. Whenever a vacancy occurs in any of these classes, the last one laid off in that particular class shall be the first re-employed in that class provided the vacancy occurs during a period not to exceed five years after that employee's layoff or reduction, and provided that the person is physically able and otherwise qualified to perform the duties of the position.

Section 5.3   Departmental Reorganization. Employees assigned to ranks or grades that have been eliminated by departmental reorganization shall be reassigned without loss of compensation for a minimum of two years from the date of reassignment. A reassignment is not required under this section when a position is eliminated due to a reduction in force, or if an employee is discharged or demoted for cause.

Section 5.4   Transfers. The transfer of an employee from one position to another in the same class and of the same title in another civil service department may be made with the approval of the civil service board upon receipt of a written request signed by the city manager or his or her designee, provided the employee meets the minimum qualifications for the position as determined by the civil service board.

RULE 6:   APPEALS TO THE CIVIL SERVICE BOARD, CIVIL SERVICE TRIAL BOARD OR ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE.

Section 6.1   Grievances to be Heard by the Civil Service Board. The civil service board has jurisdiction to hear any grievances filed pursuant to Section 34-39 of the personnel rules. All procedures referenced in Section 34-39 apply.

Section 6.2   Appeals to be Heard by a Civil Service Trial Board or Administrative Law Judge. A civil service trial board or administrative law judge has jurisdiction to hear an employee appeal filed pursuant to Sections 12 or 12.1 of Chapter XVI Sections 12 or 12.1 of the Dallas City Charter and Section 34-40 of the personnel rules. All procedures in Sections 12 and 12.1 and Section 34-40 apply.

RULE 7:   MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

Section 7.1   Rules Governing Conduct for Positions in the Civil Service. All rules governing employee conduct, evaluation of employee conduct, and remedies for nonperformance are contained in Chapter 34, "Personnel Rules," and are incorporated into these rules and regulations.

Section 7.2   Investigations by the Civil Service Board. The civil service board may conduct investigations and subpoena witnesses and the production of records, pursuant to Section 8 of Chapter XVI of the Dallas City Charter.

Section 7.3   Employee Organizations. The Civil Service Board acknowledges the right of city employees to join or refrain from joining an organization for the purpose of representation. The Board further recognizes the right of public employees to present grievances through the procedures outlined in chapter 34 of the personnel rules.

Section 7.4   Reports to the Civil Service Board.

(a)   Reports. Appointing authorities shall make prompt and complete reports to the civil service board of the following matters:

(1)   Appointments, whether temporary, emergency, or permanent.

(2)   Reinstatement appointments.

(3)   Refusal or neglect to accept appointments by a person whose name has been certified as an eligible.

(4)   Transfer of any officer or employee to or from one administrative branch or from one division to another in such branch, or from one position to another.

(5)   Leave of absence.

(6)   Suspensions.

(7)   Removals from the service, and the cause of such removal, whether resignation, discharge, or reduction of force.

(8)   Change in compensation.

(9)   Creation or abolition of any office or place of employment.

(10)   Any material changes in the duties of an officer or employee, or in the organization of departments.

(11)   All other information found needful by the civil service board in the performance of its duties and the completion of any of its various records.

(b)   Content of reports. Every report must contain the name and address of the employee affected, together with the date upon which the action takes effect, and such other facts and information as will make it possible for the civil service board to maintain a complete and correct record.

Section 7.5   Retention of Records. All original papers, examination papers and questions, certificates, and all other employment records are the property of the civil service board and must be filed in the office of the civil service board or other suitable secure place and kept not less than one year, excepting the application and examination papers of those failing to pass, which may be destroyed after six months. Examination papers, rosters and other records, must be kept in the case of non-competitive examinations as in the case of competitive examinations.

Section 7.6   Amendments to Rules.

(a)   Amending, repealing, and supplementing the rules. These rules may be amended, repealed, or supplemented by the civil service board at any time, and new rules may be adopted. Seven days before action by the civil service board to amend, repeal, or supplement any of these rules or adopt new rules, notice of such action shall be issued. The notice shall contain the proposed changes or the proposed new rules and the date and place at which the civil service board will hold a public hearing on the proposals. Copies of the notice and of the proposed changes or new rules shall be posted on the city public bulletin board in the office of the civil service board, and elsewhere as the civil service board deems advisable. Copies of the notice and proposed changes or new rules shall be available for inspection by the public and city employees.

(b)   Action by the civil service board. After public hearing, the civil service board shall take action on the proposed changes or new rules and, if by majority vote, the changes or new rules are recommended for adoption, the board shall refer them to the city council for final approval.

(c)   Referral to city council. A minimum period of 15 days must lapse between a recommended change by the civil service board and action by the city council. All rules and amendments shall become effective upon the date of their approval by the city council. Copies of approved rules and amendments shall be distributed to all city departments and shall be made available for inspection by the public and city employees.

RE: Revised Civil Service Rules

    Attached please find a copy of the revised Dallas Civil Service Rules that the Rules Subcommittee has worked on over the course of the last 2 years. Below are the highlights of the revised Rules as well as observations about the process and issues the Subcommittee encountered. First and foremost, please know that Board Secretary Jarred Davis and Assistant City Attorneys Jennifer Huggard and Laura Morrison were instrumental in drafting, reviewing and commenting on all revisions, and without their incredible assistance, this project would have been overwhelming.

    The most noticeable change is the number of pages of the revised Rules. This is due to several factors. First, a large number of the existing rules are verbatim from current provisions of the City Charter. The Subcommittee saw no reason to repeat Charter provisions since many of them (for example, provisions relating the creation and organization of the Board by the City Council, how Board members are appointed by the City Council, the duties of the Board Secretary, etc.) are not relevant to City employees (or prospective City employees) trying to understand their rights and obligations under the Civil Service Rules.

    Multiple provisions of the current Civil Service Rules are superseded by provisions contained in the City's Personnel Rules, found in Chapter 34 of the City's Code of Ordinances. For example, trial board procedures contained in current Rule XVII of the Civil Service Rules are now preempted by Section 34-40 of the Personnel Rules, which provide in Section 34-40(a)(1) that if any rule adopted by the civil service board, civil service trial boards or administrative law judges conflicts with Chapter 34 of the Code of Ordinances, then Chapter 34 prevails.

    Section 34-39 of the Personnel Rules governs appeals to the Civil Service Board, Section 34-39 is a long, detailed section and addresses grievance jurisdiction of the Board (as well as those areas where the Board does not have jurisdiction), grievance hearing procedures as well as deadlines, subpoenas, challenges to Board members, among others, all related to grievance hearings. Section 34-40 provides similar guidance, except this section applies to disciplinary appeals to a trial board or an administrative law judge. This section is as detailed as Section 34-39, and any rules of the Civil Service Board are preempted by Section 34-40.

In the revised Rules, the Subcommittee thought it appropriate to provide definitions of terms used throughout the Rules. The definitions are found in Rule 1. The definitions have been thoroughly vetted by the Subcommittee and Jarred, as well as the City Attorney's Office.

Rule 2 contains very general provisions about the Civil Service Board, and generally refers the reader to Chapter XVI of the City Charter. Rule 2 also provides for the preemption of the Civil Service Rules in the event of a conflict between the Rules and Chapter 34 of the Code of Ordinances, as noted.

Rule 3 is perhaps the "most meaty" of the Rules, and includes appointment in the competitive class, eligibility lists, probationary periods and appointment to the non-competitive class (that is, professional employees, such as city attorneys, engineers, and part-time, seasonal and temporary positions). This Rule also describes in detail the role of the Civil Service Board in establishing minimum qualifications for positions, examinations for job applicants (both standard testing as well as physical examinations), disqualification of applicants and for the first time, a subsection that specifically addresses rehire eligibility of former City employees. As some of you know, even though the Board routinely hears rehire eligibility requests by former employees, nowhere in the current Rules is that topic specifically addressed. Moreover, the Subcommittee was unable to find any official City action granting the Board that authority, even though that has been a longstanding practice of the Board. Rule 3 further provides regulations for eligibility lists and probationary periods for City employees.

Rule 4 is another substantive rule that addresses the appointment and promotion of public safety (sworn) personnel. The current rules are outdated—for example, Rules XXIII and XXIV address minimum requirements for trainee police officers and trainee fire and rescue/fire prevention officers. These current requirements are outdated and many of the requirements do not fall within the purview of the Civil Service Department, such as hearing and color vision testing. Several current provisions are unclear and may conflict with federal disability/discrimination laws. An example of this is found in Rule XXIII where applicants must have "sufficient height with proportionate weight" and "be physically and emotionally sound and free from any defect which might adversely affect the performance of police duty." See Rule XXIII(A)(3) and (4). Practically speaking, the Civil Service Department does not undertake testing of the nature described above (assuming the legal validity of the requirements, which is a stretch) and the civil service requirements mandated for sworn service appointments are limited. Rule 4 takes that into account and provides in Section 4.1(d) that the Police Department and Dallas Fire-Rescue Department "have requirements for sworn service appointment in addition to the civil service requirements" in Rule 4.

Rule 4, in Section 4.2, also describes in detail the practices of the police and fire-rescue departments for promotional examinations. While there may be some additional "tweaks" in Section 4.3 (police certifications and promotions) and Section 4.4 (fire-rescue certifications and promotions), these sections describe promotional processes as well as the required number of years in rank prior to eligibility for promotion. Section 4.4(c) allows the Board to establish promotional requirements for any new classified positions that may be established. This means that in such case, the Rules will not need to be amended any time there is a new classified position that is created by the City of Dallas.

Rule 5 addresses reductions in force (RIFs) as well as reorganizations and transfers, including the order of layoffs, which is based on reverse seniority. Reductions in force have occurred in the City during the last several years, and Rule 5 sets out the process by which such reductions are accomplished.

Rule 6 relates to appeals to the Board, a trial board or to an Administrative Law Judge. This Rule is short because it refers to the Personnel Rules and incorporates those provisions into the Rules.

The last rule, Rule 7, is a compilation of miscellaneous issues contained in Chapter XVI of the City Charter or Chapter 34 of the Code of Ordinances.

The goal of the Subcommittee was to bring the Rules up to date and eliminate those provisions that were either superseded by Chapter 34 of the Code of Ordinances or are now illegal or otherwise prohibited under state and/or federal law. That resulted in a signification reduction in pages.

I believe I can speak on behalf of former Subcommittee members Gwen Satterthwaite and Shana Khader (whose hard work was invaluable) that the revised Rules are a substantial and significant improvement over the existing Rules and we believe will be a great (and easily understandable) resource for City employees, the Civil Service Department and police and fire-rescue personnel.

of Risk Management]

Presentation Overview

- Background/History
- Purpose
- Controlled Insurance Programs
- OCIP Opportunities
- OCIP Challenges
- Other Cities/Entities
- COD Construction Data
- Considerations
- Recommendations
- Next Steps
- Appendices

Background/History

- Insurance requirements are a challenge for large-scaled construction projects

- Insurance requirements are often a barrier for M/WBEs and small businesses

- The City's practice is to transfer risks or liability to the contractor and its subcontractors

Background/History Continued

- Prime contractors may include administrative fees passed onto subcontractors in addition to the cost of insurance, which is often embedded in bid/pricing

- This practice may result in an overall increased cost of the project

Purpose

- To provide an overview of Owner Controlled Insurance Programs (OCIPs)

- To explore ways to eliminate the insurance requirement obstacle through CIPs

- To examine the opportunities and challenges of OCIPs

- To provide recommendations for Committee feedback

Types of Controlled Insurance Programs

- Owner Controlled Insurance Program (OCIP)
  - Rolling Owner Controlled Insurance Program – As new projects come online, owner can "roll" them into the current program
- Contractor Controlled Insurance Program (CCIP)

Owner Controlled Insurance Program (OCIP)

- City sponsors and controls the program
- City purchases insurance on behalf of the construction contractor and subcontractors
- Insurance commonly purchased are:
  - Workers' Compensation
  - General Liability
  - Excess Liability
  - Builder's Risk
  - Pollution Liability
- Insurance covers contractors, subcontractors, and construction management firm(s) working on the construction site
- City is the first named insured, and the general contractor, subcontractors, and other participants are named insureds

Contractor Controlled Insurance Program (CCIP)

- Contractor sponsors and controls the program
- Contractor purchases insurance on behalf of the contractor and subcontractors
- Insurance commonly purchased are:
  - Workers' Compensation
  - General Liability
  - Excess Liability
  - Builder's Risk
  - Pollution Liability
- Insurance covers contractors, subcontractors, and construction management firm(s) working on the construction site
- Contractor is the first named insured and subcontractors, and other participants are named insureds
- City is listed as an additional insured

OCIP Opportunities

FOCUS AREA	CITY	POTENTIAL BENEFITS TO CONTRACTOR/SUBS
Participation Opportunity	• Allows the City to eliminate insurance obstacles for construction contractors, including M/WBEs and small businesses by assuming and insuring the project risks	• Pathway to projects that contractor/subcontractor could not otherwise obtain • Possible M/WBE and small business participation percentage increase
Costs	• All insurance costs are identified into a single policy premium, instead of embedded in contractor/subcontractor bids • Gives the City direct control over administrative costs by dealing with a single broker and insurer • Bulk purchase of insurance lowers costs • City's broker may engage more than one insurer in competition for the program	• The contractor/subcontractor and its carrier can endorse their regular insurance policies to exclude any exposures that fall under an OCIP from any calculation of the contractor's insurance • No increase to the contractor/subcontractor regular insurance policies • SUBCONTRACTOR avoids administrative costs from the contractor
Coverage	• Insurance is purchased by the City as part of a single policy from a single insurer • Higher limits than a contractor can obtain which would cover a major disaster • Reduces coverage gaps • Reduces coverage disputes and subrogation issues between insureds and insurance carriers	• Possible greater insurance limits and coverage depth than contractor could not otherwise obtain • Contractors and subcontractors are covered under the City purchased policy related to the construction contract

FOCUS AREA	OWNER	POTENTIAL BENEFITS TO CONTRACTOR/SUBS
Safety	• Maintain centralized safety and risk management services can reduce the frequency and severity of injury • City, broker, insurer, and safety professionals work to develop centralized safety/risk services • City has direct input into policy design and structure as opposed to relying on contractors' terms and conditions	• Collaboration with City and carrier's safety experts for a more comprehensive safety program
Claims	• Better efficient claims handling because of the City and/or Carrier is the control point for managing claims	• Projected related claims are handled by City and/or Carrier's third-party administrator
Broker/Carriers	• Current broker of record established	N/A
Revenue	N/A	• SUBCONTRACTOR BENEFIT ONLY - Elimination of administrative fees charged to subcontractors
Public Relations	• Positive response from public • Positive response from M/WBEs and small businesses	N/A

OCIP Challenges

FOCUS AREA	OWNER	POTENTIAL IMPACT TO CONTRACTOR/SUBS
Participation Opportunity	N/A	N/A
Costs	• The City fronts the money for the insurance policies which can be expensive; however, costs can be reduced with higher deductibles and possible insurance credits in bid from contractor • Cost for professional OCIP management	• Deductions from contract value based on expected savings that exceed actual insurance costs • Potential losses in already-paid insurance premiums (if contractor failed to anticipate becoming fully occupied with OCIP-insured project(s) for policy period • Affects contractor's experience modifier
Coverage	• Fixed costs to owner regardless of loss experience	• Possible gaps in coverage as it relates to the contractor's regular policy
Safety	• Safety incentives in construction budget	• Must adhere to the City's safety requirements per agreement

FOCUS AREA	OWNER	POTENTIAL IMPACT TO CONTRACTOR/SUBS
Claims	• Possibility that contractors will make claim for non-project related injuries and illnesses • Contractor may have less incentive to control losses • From cradle to grave work comp claims	N/A
Broker/Carriers	N/A	• May disrupt longstanding relationships with current broker
Revenue	N/A	• CONTRACTOR IMPACT ONLY - Elimination of administrative fees charged to subcontractors

Other Cities/Public Entities

The decision to implement a CIP varied among the surveyed cities. For cities that elected a form of CIP, the insurance obstacle was removed for M/WBEs and small businesses.

  - ROCIP $5M per project for a total of a minimum of $100M

- DFW Airport
  - ROCIP $1M

- Atlanta
  - OCIP $5M

Considerations

Option A

- A ROCIP program for all constructions projects that meet established criteria

Option B

- A pilot OCIP program
- Specific Project – Kay Bailey Hutchison Convention Center Dallas (KBHCCD)

Proposed Criteria

- All City construction projects with a minimum total value of $1M
- Comply with City's local preference
- Non-retroactive

Recommendation

- Adopt a "flexible" risk appetite versus the current risk "averse" appetite. This would benefit supporting economic development and the capacity building of M/WBEs and small businesses

- Eliminate one of the obstacles to M/WBE and small business participation in large construction projects by approving a policy change in the form of an OCIP

- Per Chapter 7.43 Financial Barriers of the Availability and Disparity Study "The City should expand its technical assistance programs to include bonding and insurance assistance for M/WBEs"

- Proceed with Option A

Next Steps

- Receive City Council feedback on the proposed OCIP
- Issue an RFP for OCIP broker services, which includes obtaining quotes from insurance carriers
- City Council approval of insurance broker contract
- Elevate engagement and outreach of OCIP working with Procurement Services, Small Business Center, and other business advocacy organizations/stakeholders

FINANCIAL FORECAST REPORT

The Financial Forecast Report (FFR) provides a summary of financial activity through February 28, 2023, for the General Fund and other annual operating funds of the City. The Adopted Budget column reflects the budget adopted by City Council on September 28, 2022, effective October 1, 2022, through September 30, 2023. The Amended Budget column reflects City Council-approved transfers between funds and programs, department-initiated transfers between expense objects, approved use of contingency, and other amendments supported by revenue or fund balance.

Year-to-date (YTD) actual amounts represent revenue or expenses/encumbrances that have occurred through the end of the most recent accounting period. Departments provide the year-end (YE) forecast, which projects anticipated revenues and expenditures as of September 30, 2023. The variance is the difference between the FY 2022-23 amended budget and the YE forecast. Variance notes are provided when the YE forecast is +/- five percent of the amended budget and/or if YE expenditures are forecast to exceed the amended budget.

General Fund Overview

Fund Balance. Through September 30, 2022, the audited unassigned ending fund balance for FY 2021-22 is $329,048,566 and includes FY 2021-22 YE savings. As of February 28, 2023, the beginning fund balance for YE forecast reflects the FY 2021-22 audited unassigned ending fund balance and usage of Contingency Reserve in the amount of $6,800,000 as approved by the City Council on December 14, 2022. This allocation from Contingency Reserve was used to establish the 2022 Severe Weather and Flooding Fund to facilitate repair of insured city facilities.

Revenues. Through February 28, 2023, General Fund revenues are projected to be $24,501,000 over budget. Sales tax revenue is projected to be $15,518,000 over budget based on actual collection trends five months into the fiscal year.

Expenditures. Through February 28, 2023, General Fund expenditures are projected to be $11,000,000 over budget primarily due to uniform overtime expenses, temporary staffing costs, and capital expenditures. These expenses are partially offset by salary savings from vacant uniform and non-uniform positions across all General Fund departments.

VARIANCE NOTES

General Fund expenditure variance notes are provided below for expenditure categories with YE forecast variances of +/- five percent. The Amended Budget column reflects department-initiated transfers between expense objects.

1 Personnel Services. Personnel services are projected to be $2,388,000 under budget primarily due to salary savings associated with vacant uniform and non-uniform positions across General Fund departments, partially offset by uniform overtime expenses in Dallas Fire-Rescue ($19,486,000), Dallas Police Department ($16,563,000), and non-uniform overtime expenses. DPD overtime expenses are due in part to elevated attrition in FY 2021-22, consistent demand for police services (P1 call volume), focused support for 911 ($2.0 million) and the speeding/racing initiative ($1.8 million), as well as increased response/deployment to "hot spots". DPD uniform overtime expenses are partially offset by a budgeted American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) reimbursement. DFR uniform overtime expenses are due to higher than anticipated attrition requiring backfill to meet minimum staffing standards.

4 Capital Outlay. Capital outlay is projected to be $3,317,000 over budget primarily due to PKR expenses related to unbudgeted preventive security and safety measures at recreational facilities, parks, and trails ($2,349,000) and higher than budgeted CCS equipment and trucks for nuisance abatement, Pro-Active, and HART teams ($640,000).

VARIANCE NOTES

The Enterprise, Internal Service, and Other Funds summaries include the beginning fund balance with the YE revenue and expenditure forecasts. As of February 28, 2023, the beginning fund balance for the adopted and amended budgets and YE forecast represents the FY 2021-22 audited ending fund balance and includes FY 2021-22 YE savings. Variance notes are provided below for funds with a YE forecast variance of +/- five percent, YE forecast projected to exceed budget, or projected use of fund balance.

1 Aviation. AVI revenues are projected to be $3,780,000 over budget due to higher concession sales for food and beverages than budgeted.

2 Convention and Event Services. CCT revenues are projected to be over budget $2,459,000 due to a higher number of events than budgeted. CCT expenses are projected to be over budget $2,459,000 due to an increase in capital transfer. Excess revenue will be transferred to the CCT capital fund.

3 Development Services. DEV revenues are projecting to be over budget by $74,000 due to the Rapid Single-Family VIP program. City Council increased DEV's expense budget by $5,000,000 on November 9 by resolution 22-1676 for construction services at 7800 N Stemmons and by $5,708,508 on February 22 by resolution 23-0317 for a service contract with Accela, Inc. for the purchase of initial licenses and implementation, maintenance, and support of a building permitting and land management solution.

4 Municipal Radio. OCA revenues are expected to be $104,000 over budget due to higher than budgeted reimbursements from KERA. OCA expenses are projected to be $97,000 over budget due to a contract buy-out that creates savings on the Nielsen contract.

8 Bond & Construction Management. BCM revenues are expected to be $461,000 over budget due to the reimbursement of prior year projects that were not expensed before the end of FY 2021-22. BCM expenses are projected to be $939,000 under budget primarily due to salary savings associated with 48 vacant positions. BCM charges each capital project budget for project implementation costs. Savings in actual implementation expenses result in fewer charges to the capital project.

9 Equipment and Fleet Management. EFM revenues are projected to be $2,932,000 over budget due to additional maintenance costs as a result of extending the maintenance schedules for Sanitation from four to five days, revised routes resulting in additional chargebacks, and higher fuel costs. The FY 2022-23 Adopted Budget reflects planned use of fund balance. EFM expenses are projected to be $2,931,000 over budget primarily due to contracted labor and temporary staffing, and higher fuel costs.

10 Express Business Center. Express Business Center revenues are projected to be $735,000 over budget due to an increase in auto pound sales. Express Business Center expenses are projected to be $436,000 under budget due to salary savings associated with vacant positions.

13 9-1-1 System Operations. 911 System Operations revenues are projected to be $899,000 over budget due to an increase in 911 fee collections for both wireless and wireline phones based on year-to-date receipts.

15 Employee Benefits. Employee Benefits expenses are projected to be $6,053,000 over budget primarily due to the increased cost of inpatient and outpatient medical and pharmacy claims, which have increased 10 percent on a per-enrollee basis compared to the historical cost increase of seven percent.

16 Risk Management. ORM expenses are projected to be $10,933,000 under budget primarily due to a delay in anticipated claims expenses from FY 2022-23 to FY 2023-24.

Hotel Occupancy Tax

The City collects hotel occupancy taxes (HOT) on hotel, motel, bed and breakfast, and short-term rentals in the city limits. The HOT rate in Dallas is 15 percent of the cost of the room (not including food served or personal services not related to cleaning and readying the space for the guest)—six percent goes to the state, and nine percent goes to the City. Of the nine percent to the city, two percent is to be used for the Convention Center Expansion and the Fair Park Facilities Venue Projects and seven percent is allocated for Visit Dallas, Office of Arts and Culture, and Kay Bailey Hutchison Convention Center Dallas. HOT is the largest single revenue source for the Kay Bailey Hutchison Convention Center, and data is typically updated every two months.

Love Field Enplanements

An enplanement is when a revenue-generating passenger boards an aircraft. Enplanements are the most important air traffic metric because enplaned passengers directly or indirectly generate 80 percent of Aviation revenues. Typically, Aviation generates only 20 percent of total operating revenues from non-passenger-related activities.

Building Permits

Building permits (required for all construction in Dallas) can provide insight into upcoming activity in the housing market and other areas of the economy. Permits are a key indicator of the confidence developers have in the economy; likewise, a decline can indicate developers do not anticipate economic growth in the near future. In some cities, this measure may be a leading indicator of property tax value growth, but in Dallas, the property tax forecast model includes other variables like wage/job growth, housing supply, gross domestic product, population, vacancy rates, and others.

DALLAS 365

The Dallas 365 initiative aligns 35 key performance measures to our eight strategic priorities. The department responsible for each measure is noted at the end of the measure's description, and last year's performance is included if available. If FY 2022-23 data is not available, N/A is listed.

Year-to-date (YTD) and year-end (YE) targets are presented for each measure. YTD targets may vary based on seasonality of the work. Each month, we compare 1) the YTD target with the actual performance for the current reporting period and 2) the YE target with the department's forecasted performance as of September 30, 2023.

Measures are designated "on target" (green) if actual YTD performance is equal to or greater than the YTD target. If actual YTD performance is within five percent of the YTD target, it is "near target" (yellow). Otherwise, the measure is designated "not on target" (red). The same methodology applies to YE forecasts. Variance notes are provided for each red measure.

FY 2022-23 Dallas 365
VARIANCE NOTES

11 Due to POM staffing levels, informal solicitation requests are being carefully monitored to ensure processing within 15 business days. POM is working to address the performance variance by identifying temporary staffing to ensure timely solicitation reviews, stabilize ongoing workload, and reduce incurred delays. POM expects the percentage to improve in future reporting periods.

15 DFR continues to experience increased EMS response times due to extremely high emergency call volume. EMS transport rates continues to be over 60 percent, compared to historical rates of 40-45 percent. Increases in call volume and transport rates result in a decrease in the number of available units, while an increase in unit hour utilization, results in increased response times.

17 Overall violent crime has increased by 6.63 percent for February 2023. With the focus on interrupting and disrupting violent people and places, DPD strives to continue to see a reduction in crimes against persons and is targeting hot spots such as apartment complexes to decrease crime. DPD is implementing the Place Network Investigations (PNI) plan as part of the Violent Crime Plan. DPD has seen a 13.71 percent decrease in robbery offenses and Total Crime is down 3.5 percent YTD due to 579 fewer offenses. There is an increase in Aggravated Assaults, and this is due to single incidents having multiple complainants. DPD is using all available resources to help investigate these offenses to determine the cause.

18 To assist in the response of priority one calls within eight minutes or less, DPD will be conducting a 10-hour shift study to help determine if this benefits the citizens of Dallas. DPD plans to reevaluate the call volume to determine if new call-out substations are needed. There were no recruit graduations, resulting in no changes to staffing levels.

24 LIB circulation has experienced a decline due to a considerable number of customers failing to return technological devices. Customers are charged for unreturned items and are presently unable to borrow any further library materials until the devices have been returned. LIB is reviewing technology inventory and policy to ensure devices are available for other library customers.

28 Late Night Teen capacities and participation are down due to the reduced number of offerings each month during the school year. The program is offered the first Friday of each month vs every Friday of each month as it was offered in FY2021-22. PKR is taking steps to address the reduced attendance by offering additional teen related programs throughout the department that will ultimately draw in additional participation to the late-night program. PKR anticipates meeting its stated goals during the summer timeframe when teen calendars aren't filled with school related activities and the additional programs have begun.

30 Sixty-four (64.8) lane miles YTD have been completed out of 11,770 miles. PBW anticipates improved performance in future months with the maintenance contract awarded in January (CR #23-0014).

BUDGET INITIATIVE TRACKER

The Budget Initiative Tracker reports on 35 activities included in the FY 2022-23 budget. For each initiative included in this report, you will find the initiative number, title, description, status, and measure. At the end of each description, the responsible department is listed. Each month, the responsible department provides a current status for the initiative and indicates whether the initiative is "complete" (blue circle), "on track" for completion by the end of the fiscal year (green check mark), "at risk" of not being completed by the end of the fiscal year (yellow exclamation mark), or "canceled" (red x).

In the Spotlight

In December 2019, the Dallas City Council committed the City to a goal of ZERO traffic fatalities and a 50 percent reduction in severe injuries by 2030. The Vision Zero resolution directed the City Manager to convene a Vision Zero Task Force that would collaborate with City departments on the development of a Vision Zero Action Plan and have City departments participate in Vision Zero Action Plan development, implementation, and evaluation. The Action Plan and its recommendations are based upon a wide-ranging analysis of data as well as public input.

The Vision Zero approach views serious and fatal incidents/crashes as preventable and calls for a system that accommodates and mitigates human error, preventing fatal and severe crashes.

At the heart of Vision Zero is the principle that traffic deaths and serious injuries are unacceptable and, most importantly, preventable. Cities around the globe have seen success in their respective Vision Zero initiatives, but truly reaching ZERO will require the participation and engagement of the entire Dallas community.

PROCESS IMPROVEMENT

The Process Improvement Team seeks to build a culture of continuous improvement throughout the City of Dallas, partnering with departments to leverage data and research-based best practices for transformative operational success today while laying with foundation for future innovation.

The Process Improvement Team applies the DMAIC problem solving approach to dig into process issues and deliver quantifiable, sustainable results. DMAIC is a five-phase method:

- •Define – Define the problem
- •Measure – Quantify the problem
- •Analyze – Identify the cause of the problem
- •Improve – Solve the root cause, develop structured improvements, and verify improvement
- •Control – Maintain the gains and pursue perfection

The Process Improvement Team has focused on building awareness among departments, creating an organization-wide framework for process improvement, and establishing a cross-functional knowledge base for greater inter-departmental coordination. The following table summarizes current Process Improvement projects for FY 2022-23 which will be reported as Complete, On Track, Delayed, Cancelled, or Pre-Kickoff. The DMAIC phase may be referenced in the status update. The Improve phase is often the most challenging to implement because it involves eliminating the root cause and implementing improvements. This phase often extends the project timeline.

The Baseline for Key Performance Indicators is the starting point of metric to engage success for completing projects. Additional projects will be added to the list throughout the course of the fiscal year.

Severity 1 and Severity 2

NOTES:

1. Severity 1 and Severity 2 incidents are the most severe and most likely result in degraded services or outages that impact the ability of City departments to fulfill their missions.
2. This chart tracks the number of reported incidents by department, along with the total number minutes the incident(s) potentially impacted them.
3. These data points are extracted from ServiceNow based upon input by city IT technicians. Our analysis reveals that there are incidents which are resolved but have not been timely or appropriately closed out within the ServiceNow platform, resulting in artificially inflated resolution timeframes. ITS is working with IT service delivery managers to improve documented processes to ensure timely updates to ServiceNow in order to accurately reflect the actions for the incident and to provide a more representative experience. As is demonstrated by the reduction in MTTR over the past several months, our efforts in this area are having positive results.

1. This chart provides the distribution of incidents and impact minutes over specific services and delineated by Critical and High severity.

Monthly MTTR

NOTES

1. This chart provides the trendline for the average mean time to repair (MTTR), an industry standard for tracking the timeliness of resolution on reported incidents.

2. In March 2023, the MTTR continued downwards averaging just over 2500 minutes, on a count similar to October of 2022 where the MTTR was in the 5000-minute range.

3. Diligence by the technicians to document and resolve tickets in a timely manner is the primary driver of the reduction in MTTR.

NOTES

1. Major outages are identified as Severity1 that have significant impact to City services or Department's ability to perform critical functions and last over 4 hours in duration. As we mature the process this definition will be better scoped around impact and less around duration.

2. Outages with #value are incidents that had over 4 hours of impact, however, are incomplete of details to identify full impact to departments

3. March saw a decrease in both average time to repair and total outage time for Major Incidents compared to February. March average MTTR of 24.4 hours compared to February of 46.7 hours. March total outage 487 hours compared to February which had 747 hours

4. March saw 20 Major incidents, 10 critical and 10 high, an increase of 4 over February of 16, 4 critical and 12 high.

Section 4: Cybersecurity Programs

A. Current Cyber-threat Landscape

January 2023 threat's landscape has begun with an exhaustive list of cyber-attacks, ransomware attacks, and data breaches. Multiple high-profile organizations, including healthcare providers, educational institutions and government bodies, have reportedly become targets of cyber-attacks. IT governance reported 104 publicly disclosed cyber exposing 277 million records in January. T-Mobile, University of Miami, Tucson Unified School District, and Des Moines School District, all were victims of ransomware. More recently Cities of Oakland and Modesto also fell victim to ransomware, causing a state of emergency, closing city hall, and disrupting services to their residents.

Local governments continue to be targeted by phishing attacks, which typically involve an email or other message that appears to be from a legitimate source using a clickable link to deliver malware and ransomware to spread within the organization.

The City of Dallas's cyber-fusion center reports roughly 750,000 observable threats for the Month of January. Ransomware attacks are followed by or in combination with supply chain attacks and State sponsored attacks. Supply chain attacks come from using compromised third-party software as an opening into government system. In addition, State-sponsored cyber-attacks continued to be a focus, from China, Russia, and Iran. In 2023, cybercrime activity is expected to pass 8 trillion in cost to organization.

The following shows the top threats present in March 2023 by country:

Top Threats 3/2023 by Country

- China 41%
- US 35%
- Russia 6%
- India 11%
- Germany 7%

B. Awareness Training

Security Awareness training is measured on an annual basis. Over the past 12 months ITS has witnessed a steady decline in risk scoring for Employee's annual training. Beginning with each new fiscal year the City will undergo a new set of security awareness courses to meet not only the best practices, but State of Texas House Bill 3834 requirements for all government employees. The information below illustrates the enrollment and completion efforts of employee training over the course of the year. FY 2021-22 the City completed 99% of 18 training campaigns covering HIPAA, PCI, and Cybersecurity. FY 2022-23 started has started with City employees notified of their mandatory security awareness training requirement and instructions for completion.

NOTE: employees with less than 25% of job functions involving technology are not required to complete the annual cybersecurity training.

The following shows the status of mandatory security awareness training for City employees as of March 31, 2023:
Additionally, ITS continuously applies best practices for managing employee cyber-risk from phishing attempts and their ability to recognize and appropriately handle phishing incidents. Campaigns designed around real-world scenarios, typically taken from recent events, are sent out to the employee population to test their ability to distinguish and appropriately act upon the potential threat. This provides feedback to the employees as well has increased the actual amount of true phishing reported. To facilitate reporting, a "Report phishing" button was added to user's Outlook interface, which has increased both the numbers of test phish and actual phishing emails.

The first graph shows phishing test activities for City employees, while the second shows phishing reporting activity for simulated and unsimulated events as of March 31, 2023:

C. Situational Awareness

Annually ITS assess the overall Security posture of the organization based upon the NIST Cybersecurity Framework (CSF). Each category within the NIST CSF is evaluated for the current level of maturity and expectant maturity level. This process uses current and projected technologies and documented standards and procedures to complete the process. ITS utilizes both internal and external resources to conduct assessments. The results of the assessments are used by ITS to develop security strategy for cybersecurity and privacy.   The below figure outlines the maturity model for the CSF. While the TAR does not provide our scores from our self-assessment, ITS can provide this information to Council members and discuss the assessments in depth as requested.

Capability Maturity Model Levels

	Level 1 Initial	Level 2 Repeatable	Level 3 Defined	Level 4 Managed	Level 5 Optimized
Identify	Little to no cybersecurity risk identification.	Process for cybersecurity risk identification exists, but it is immature.	Risks to IT assets are identified and managed in a standard, well defined process.	Risks to the business environment are identified and proactively monitored on a periodic basis.	Cybersecurity risks are continuously monitored and incorporated into business decisions.
Protect	Asset protection is reactive and ad hoc.	Data protection mechanisms are implemented across the environment.	Data is formally defined and protected in accordance with its classification.	The environment is proactively monitored via protective technologies.	Protection standards are operationalized through automation and advanced technologies.
Detect	Anomalies or events are not detected or not detected in a timely manner.	Anomaly detection is established through detection tools and monitoring procedures.	A baseline of "normal" activity is established and applied against tools/procedures to better identify malicious activity.	Continuous monitoring program is established to detect threats in real-time.	Detection and monitoring solutions are continuously learning behaviors and adjusting detection capabilities.
Respond	The process for responding to incidents is reactive or non-existent.	Analysis capabilities are applied consistently to incidents by Incident Response (IR) roles.	An IR Plan defines steps for incident preparation, analysis, containment, eradication, and post-incident.	Response times and impacts of incidents are monitored and minimized.	The capabilities of all IT personnel, procedures, technologies are regularly tested and updated.
Recover	The process for recovering from incidents is reactive or non-existent.	Resiliency and recovery capabilities are applied consistently to incidents impacting business operations.	A Continuity & Disaster Recovery Plan defines steps to continue critical functions and recover to normal operations.	Recovery times and impacts of incidents are monitored and minimized.	The capabilities of all IT personnel, procedures, technologies are regularly tested and updated.

D. Data Protection & Privacy

1. Endpoint Protection

Endpoint protection is one component to the organization's ability to handle daily malware. All devices needing connection to the internet are subject to attacks. Attacks are mitigated through technologies monitoring the systems in real time reacting and responding to those attacks. Technologies like Firewall and Endpoint Detection and Response all are in place to respond to those attacks. Below charts provide March 2023 metrics on endpoint attacks, malware attacks, and blocked webpage requests representing threats.

Total Security Blocked	28,000,000
2. Email Screening

The City of Dallas receives and sends millions of emails each month. Phishing is an attack vector utilized by bad actors (in the form of social engineering) as a means to gain internal access to an organization's network. A successful email-based phishing attack can then be used to place malware, ransomware, and other malicious software onto a user's device providing access to the City's network and posing a risk to City services or data. Along with security awareness training and simulated phishing campaigns, a key tool is screening email traffic and blocking known phishing attacks. Below provides a picture of mail messages processed and remediated prior to being received by a City user.

Section 5: IT Infrastructure

IT Infrastructure information and status updates on efforts to upgrade and improve the IT infrastructure used by the City to reduce technical debt, better meet current needs, and build for future service needs.

A.   Resiliency - Disaster Recovery and Business Continuity

Resilience is essential in the City's IT environment because it ensures that the system can continue to function effectively and efficiently even when unexpected events occur. This can include things like hardware or software failures, power outages, natural disasters, and cyber-attacks. Lack of resiliency impacts Local government to prolonged outages, data loss, and security breaches. These can be costly in terms of services to residents, loss of public trust, and regulatory penalties.

Resiliency can be achieved through a combination of redundancy, fault tolerance, disaster recovery planning, and proactive monitoring and maintenance. By designing and implementing resilient IT systems, the City can minimize the impact of disruptions and maintain business continuity, ensuring that critical applications and services remain available. ITS has begun evaluating on opportunities to design the City's IT environment to improve resilience.

A critical component of Disaster Recovery and Business Continuity practices is backing up critical data, testing data backups, and conducting exercises to ensure that data backups can be successfully utilized to restore business services.

City of Dallas System Backups completed 3/2023
B. Technical Debt

Technical debt can be defined as the accumulation of design or implementation compromises made during the development of software, applications, or systems. As well, many organizations incur technical debt by not upgrading and/or maintaining their technology infrastructure in a timely manner to ensure the delivery of better/best-in-class technology services to their customers. Similar to how financial debt accrues interest over time, technical debt also accumulates and incurs a cost in the form of increased maintenance and development time, reduced quality, and decreased productivity.

Generally, technical debt is categorized by three types:

- Intentional tech debt: This is created deliberately by an organization in an effort to get technical capability into production more quickly. This form of tech debt involves a premeditated choice where an organization knowingly accepts some level of instability, insecurity, poor performance, user dissatisfaction or some other type of problem in exchange for launching the product sooner. This form of tech debt introduces risk, but represents a known risk that can be documented, tracked, and remedied over time.
- Unintentional tech debt: This form of tech debt arises from sloppiness, unexpected complexity, or a lack of technical expertise in designing and implementing software systems. This type of tech debt may be documented, but usually it is not because it often remains unknown until an event occurs revealing the issues or errors. Unintentional tech debt can still be remediated, but the development process will need to be adjusted accordingly, impacting the function and value of software.
- Environmental tech debt: This category of tech debt occurs over time and without effort. A system may be developed well, implemented well, and perform well at the time of implementation, but if not managed over time, environmental technical debt is likely to accrue because the environment in which it operates is in flux and changing. The technology will change, the needs of its users will change, and the capabilities of the devices on which it operates will change rendering a system that was originally well-designed unhealthy over time.

The City of Dallas has each of these types of technical debt present in its technology environment. In many instances there is a combination of multiple types of tech debt present for a given system or service operated in the City.

A strategic element of the City's IT Infrastructure improvement direction, a proactive approach is being taken that identifies, tracks, and will communicate the potential risks and costs associated with technical debt to City departments. The City's technical debt has accumulated over time, reducing the IT effectiveness for services. Any plan must involve setting aside time and resources, specifically to address the deficit, or "pay down debt".

ITS has commenced framing a roadmap that provides guidance to technical debt remediation by outlining a clear and comprehensive plan for addressing technical debt over time. The plan shall outline and review changes in the system landscape and the City's strategic priorities. The plan shall track progress toward milestones and adjust the roadmap as needed to ensure that technical debt is not only reduced, but continuously managed.

The charts below represent the current assessment of ITS infrastructure systems and applications to be impacted over the next 5 years as technical debt to the City of Dallas.

IT Infrastrucutural Debt

Critical 13%
High 13%
Moderate 35%
Low 39%

■ Critical ■ High ■ Moderate ■ Low
The above chart represents a high-level assessment of the relative status of the City's 800+ systems/applications and when, based upon the age, contract status, version of software, and several other characteristics or factors those applications will require attention to avoid accumulating technical debt. In other words, the "currency" of those systems will degrade to the point that additional risk will be presented unless actions are taken to address whichever characteristic if falling out of currency. In many instances, this is as simple as a contract renewal or upgrading the version of software. In other instances, it may require a major refresh or upgrade to the application.

Note: While this chart represents percentages of the total inventory of 800+ applications in use by the City, it is purely a volume percentage and does not represent the proportion of cost, complexity, or risk present in the application portfolio.

Due to the significant cost and time needed to solve the technical debt issues in the City, as well as the need to minimize disruption to City technology services, a seven-year roadmap for technical debt has been designed that would plan for gradually reducing and eliminating the accumulated technical debt of the organization's software systems and infrastructure.

The following chart provides a high-level view of the proportion of technical debt present in an environment and how a technical debt remediation plan and ongoing monitoring can serve to reduce the amount of technical debt and maintain it at healthy level into the future.

Healthy IT Infrastructure & Operations

Amount of Technical Debt

Legend:
- Network Bandwidth (orange)
- Internal Infrastructure (green)
- Applications (blue)
In conducting initial assessments of the City's application portfolio and working with Gartner Research in performing application health reviews, ITS has formulated a preliminary estimate of costs associated with remediating the current technical debt present in our environment and for maintaining applications into the future.

Preliminary Estimated Costs of Technical Debt Remediation, based upon industry standards:

	2024	2025	2026	2027	2028	2029-
Infrastructure Cost	$12,000,000	$7,200,000	$26,900,000	$14,000,000	$11,000,000	$9,000,000
Application Cost	$23,115,000	$53,000,000	$30,000,000	$20,000,000	$15,000,000	$15,000,000
Approved Projects	5	4	0	0	0	0
Allocated Budget	$16,500,000	$29,000,000

The following represents an initial, draft 7-year framework for remediating the technical debt within the City's environment associated with software applications and infrastructure. Those activities listed under the current year are underway and ongoing. ITS will continue to provide updates to the Council as the framework is built out.

Current:

BMS Process Improvement Update
[Budget and Management Services]

Memorandum

TO Honorable Members of the Government Performance and Financial Management Committee: Cara Mendelsohn (Chair), Gay Donnell Willis (Vice Chair), Tennell Atkins, Adam Bazaldua, Adam McGough, Paul Ridley, Chad West

SUBJECT Process Improvement Team – Update on Projects

During last month's Government Performance and Financial Management (GPFM) Committee meeting, Chair Mendelsohn requested an update on the following process improvement projects: (1) new employee hiring and onboarding, (2) contract review and execution, and (3) risk review and certificate of insurance.

Budget and Management Services' (BMS) Process Improvement Team applies the DMAIC approach to process improvement. DMAIC refers to a data-driven quality strategy for improving a process and is an integral part of Six Sigma. DMAIC is an acronym for five interconnected phases:

- Define – Define the problem
- Measure – Quantify the problem
- Analyze – Identify the cause of the problem
- Improve – Solve the root cause, develop structure improvements, and verify improvements
- Control – Maintain the gains and pursue perfection

The Improve phase is often the most challenging phase to implement because it involves eliminating the root cause of the problem and implementing improvements. Implementing improvements require engagement, management buy-in, may result in additional staffing, or implementation of new technology. This phase often extends the project timeline. Each phase of DMAIC is referenced in the updates below.

New Employee Hiring and Onboarding
Project Description (Define): The aim of this two-phase project was to reduce the lead time for recruiting and onboarding new employees from the time of the creation of the job requisition to the start date, thus maximizing throughput and increasing internal customer satisfaction. The process improvement team included staff from Human Resources (HR), Civil Service (CVS), and the Office of Risk Management (ORM). The first phase focused on recruitment (requisition creation through offer) and the second phase focused on onboarding (offer through start date).

Phase One – Recruitment

Measure: The team documented the current recruitment process and established a NeoGov data report to facilitate baselining the current recruitment process. The team also solicited feedback from hiring managers in several departments to understand their biggest roadblocks and hurdles throughout the recruitment process.

Analyze: Using the data and information collected by the team, the following were identified as root causes of delays occurring in the recruitment process:
1. Limitations in the NeoGov software and data.
2. Using two different systems (NeoGov and Workday) that do not communicate with each other.
3. Unclear and incorrect instructions for completing tasks in NeoGov and Workday.
4. Instructions for hiring managers to get them through the entire process were scattered on multiple websites and not kept up to date.
5. Users having trouble knowing what tasks are required and in which order.
6. Delays arising from large increases in the number of requisitions at the start of the fiscal year.

Improve: The team addressed the root causes by implementing short term action items as well as identifying long term solutions as follows:
1. Limitations in the NeoGov software and data.
   a. Short term action: Clarified the NeoGov software instructions provided to users to help reduce the impact of the limitations of the NeoGov software.
   b. Short term action: Created an internal Tableau tool to provide a high-level overview of the hiring process while also recognizing the data reporting limitations, data variations, and data inconsistencies due to the NeoGov platform.
   c. Long term solution: The NeoGov portion of the process will be rolled into Workday to eliminate this root cause. Additionally, once the process is entirely performed within Workday, the Workday data will be used to develop a Tableau tool for more accurately monitoring the process.
2. Using two different systems (NeoGov and Workday) that do not communicate with each other.
   a. Short term action: The instructions for using the two systems were updated and clarified to reduce the likelihood of users making mistakes that delay the process during the NeoGov to Workday handoff.
   b. Long term solution: The NeoGov portion of the process will be rolled into Workday to eliminate this root cause.
3. Unclear and incorrect instructions for completing tasks in NeoGov and Workday.
   a. Short term action: Clarified and corrected the NeoGov and Workday software instructions provided to users.
   b. Long term solution: The NeoGov portion of the process will be rolled into Workday to eliminate this root cause.

4. Instructions for hiring managers to get them through the entire process were scattered on multiple websites and not kept up to date.
    a. Long term solution: The team removed out of date recruitment resources from the dallascityhall.gov website and the city intranet. The team also created a City of Dallas Recruitment Guide SharePoint site that contains all the updated resources and instructions hiring managers need to get through the recruitment process.
5. Users having trouble knowing what tasks are required and in which order.
    a. Short term action: Development of Microsoft Planner tasks that any hiring manager can use to keep track of the actions they must complete to get through the recruitment process.
    b. Long term solution: The NeoGov portion of the process will be rolled into Workday where tasks can be automatically assigned to eliminate this root cause.
6. Delays arising from large increases in the number of requisitions at the start of the fiscal year
    a. Long term solution: HR anticipates the influx of requisitions at the start of the fiscal year and adjusts their workload appropriately to reduce the likelihood of delays from the influx.

In September 2022, HR requested a Customer Survey to be used by the hiring managers (quarterly) and new hires (weekly). This final step was completed in December 2022, and HR will manage the survey going forward.

Control: The team established quarterly reviews to continue to monitor the data and customer survey feedback. Based on the reviews the team will continue to monitor the implementation of the long-term action items, identify additional areas for continued improvement, and communicate with city leadership.

Phase Two – Onboarding
Measure: The team documented the current onboarding process and made the documented steps detailed enough for everyone involved to understand and follow. The team also documented manually recorded data to facilitate baselining the current onboarding process. An internal Tableau tool was created to provide a high-level overview of the onboarding process while also recognizing the data reporting limitations of the manually recorded data.

Analyze: Using the data and information the team collected, the following were identified as root causes of delays occurring in the onboarding process:
1. Using two different systems (NeoGov and Workday) that do not communicate with each other.
2. Delays caused by the background check vendor.
3. Delays caused by the physical and drug screening vendor.

Improve:
1. Using two different systems (NeoGov and Workday) that do not communicate with each other
    a. Short term action: Clarified and corrected the NeoGov and Workday software instructions provided to users.
    b. Long term solution: The NeoGov portion of the process will be rolled into Workday to eliminate this root cause.
2. Delays caused by the background check vendor
    a. A new vendor for background checks has been established.
3. Delays caused by the physical and drug screening vendor
    a. Short term action: ORM is taking the appropriate steps to manage adherence to the contract performance guarantees.

Control: The team established quarterly reviews to continue to monitor the data and customer survey feedback. Based on the reviews the team will continue to monitor the implementation of the long-term action items, identify additional areas for continued improvement, and communicate with city leadership.

Contract Review and Execution
Project Description (Define): Decrease and refine the number of steps in the procurement process to reduce overall processing time, reduce costs associated with delays and improve the quality of customer service. The initial process improvement team included staff from the Office of Budget & Management Services (BMS) and the Office of Procurement Services (OPS).

Measure: Reduce the number of steps in the procurement process.

The remaining stages of this process improvement project are now underway and being managed by OPS Lean Six Sigma team led by a Black Belt.

Analyze: The team identified the following factors contributing to the processing delays: inter-departmental information exchanges, incomplete procurement request documents, inadequate staffing, buyers' management of multiple procurements in different phases with various levels of complexities at the same time, and lack of a software system to manage/track the process. The current process includes 68 steps starting with the procurement request from departments, ending with filing the contract with the City Secretary after City Council contract approval, taking 190 days on average. OPS currently uses Bonfire for uploading solicitation documents, vendor communication and bid/proposal submission, and this system is limited and does not allow tracking of project status outside of the active procurement phase.

SUBJECT   Process Improvement Team – Update on Projects

Improve: The entire process was mapped and broken down into three (3) stages; Intake (9 steps), Active Solicitation (25 steps), and Post Solicitation (14 steps), now consisting of only 48 steps compared to the previous 68 steps. Each stage will be processed and managed by a dedicated Buying Team of procurement specialists and a manager. The Buying Team for each stage will be able to concentrate on one part of the process versus its entirety, which will result in increased expertise being applied, enhanced project management and reduce processing time and costs. Additionally, OPS will streamline the intake process with the use of Salesforce to standardize procurement submissions, condensing document requests, and project tracking, leading to an improved customer service experience. OPS forms will be updated by removing duplicate information and condensing document requests. In addition to outreach trainings and technical assistance for the community and vendors, OPS will launch bi-weekly procurement process trainings for internal departments once the process improvement is implemented.

Control: The team is currently working in the Improve phase. The citywide introduction of the new process will occur in the fourth quarter of FY 2022-23, with bi-weekly procurement process training for internal departments in July. Implementation of Salesforce will occur in the second quarter of FY 2023-24.

Risk Review & Certificate Insurance
Project Description (Define): Decrease the number of days and rework to process Risk Reviews and Certificates of Insurance. The process improvement team included staff from the Office of Risk Management (ORM).

Measure: The team identified two measures for this project. Reduce the number of days it takes to process Risk Reviews (RR) and Certificate of Insurance (COI); and reduce the amount of rework on both RR and COIs. The team used historical Origami software (current software used by the City) data to establish a baseline for both metrics. The baseline data for each metric was identified as: RR – 1.45 days, and COI – 2 days. The compliance rate at the start of the project was 65 percent. The project goal is 1 day to process RR and 1 day to process COIs with a compliance rate of 99 percent.

Analyze: Using the data collected, the team identified the following as root cause of delays resulting in rework.
1. The order of business processes, and configuration in Origami.
   a. When multiple insurers are used on a single project, COI expiration emails are only sent to the top listed insurer. In these cases, the insurer who received the email may have valid insurance and may not be approaching expiration. This causes confusion on the part of the insurer and does not inform the actual expiring insurer of the issue. Subsequently decreasing the compliance rate.

    b.   While ORM uses Optical Character Recognition (OCR) software oftentimes the OCR does not read submitted COI's correctly leaving many of the fields blank and incomplete. Staff manually enters this information. The original COI is attached to the RR in Origami and as such all the information is available.

    c.   Formatting/information conversion issues occur when Origami automatically creates memos. These require manual review and correction of each memo.

    d.   Several items on the customer interaction/input side of Origami ask for information that require ORM staff expertise. This creates customer confusion and phone calls to ORM staff.

2. Projects currently require manually closing once complete. ORM is seldom notified of project completion, resulting in inflated noncompliance rates due to expired COI's.

3. Lack of response by the vendor and the department managing the contract resulting in a backlog of 797 projects pending COI review and contributing to the low compliance rate.

Improve: In total the team identified 39 Origami software enhancements, ranging from elimination of OCR/manually input information to redesign of automated project closure process. Enhancements also include changes to the customer interaction screen that will allow customer clarity and reduced calls to ORM staff. A total of 3 Origami changes have been implemented with 36 remaining.

Additionally, in November 2022 a request was sent to all departments asking them to update project status which would allow ORM to close/update the backlog of projects. In total there were 797 projects identified for review, to date ORM has received 348 responses allowing those projects to be either closed (239) out or updated (109). As a result of these efforts the compliance rate has increased from 65% to 80%.

Control: This project was scheduled to be complete by the end of March, however, Origami enhancements remain as well as a final decision regarding the process to address expired COIs is under consideration. Additionally, the team will develop new user training to be launched in August 2023. This process improvement project will continue to be reported monthly until the final Origami enhancements have been implemented, final decision regarding expired COIs, and user training complete.

The Process Improvement Team will continue to build awareness among departments, continue to create an organization-wide framework for process improvement with quarterly Community of Practice sessions, and establish a cross-functional knowledge base for greater inter-departmental coordination by completing the structured approach to process improvement.

Statewide Opioid Settlement Agreement and Proposed Uses
[Budget and Management Services]

Memorandum

TO Honorable Members of the Government Performance and Financial Management Committee: Cara Mendelsohn (Chair), Gay Donnell Wills (Vice Chair), Tennell Atkins, Adam Bazaldua, Adam McGough, Paul Ridley, Chad West

SUBJECT Statewide Opioid Settlement Agreement

The State of Texas enacted the Statewide Opioid Settlement Agreement to manage distribution of money allocated from the opioid abatement trust fund in accordance with a statewide opioid settlement agreement. Senate Bill 1827 (2021) required the State of Texas to establish a fund to receive and distribute payments required by settlements against opioid manufacturers and distributers. The Opioid Abatement Trust Fund was established by the State for distributing the settlement proceeds. The Texas Opioid Abatement Council was established to ensure that money recovered by the state through a statewide opioid settlement agreement is allocated fairly and spent to remediate the opioid crisis in the state by using efficient and cost-effective methods that are directed to regions of the state experiencing opioid-related harm.

Funds will be distributed based on a formula that includes "opioid instances." Cities and counties will receive 15 percent of the funds and the balance will be distributed to Health Care Regions, Hospital Districts, the Attorney General's Office, and for administrative costs. The City of Dallas received $941,732.69 from the Opioid Abatement Trust Fund in early March 2023.

Eligible uses to combat opioid-related harm include:

- Naloxone distribution and training on administration
- Screening, treatment, and wraparound recovery support services, including for pregnant women and infants or other populations
- Community drug disposal and syringe services
- Funding and training for first responders
- Prevention and Education campaigns
- Support to prevent over-prescribing, misuse, and overdose
- Planning and research to abate the opioid epidemic

In November 2022, the City Council established the Opioid Strike Force, which serves to aid in prioritizing funding.

The City will accept the Opioid Settlement funds and recommend proposed use of funds on the May 10, 2023, City Council agenda. This should be considered one-time funding, as we do not know if or when we will get future allocations, or how much those allocations might be. City staff will also maintain continued coordination with stakeholders to ensure there is no duplication of services.

Development Services Monthly Update
[Majed Al-Ghafry, Assistant City Manager, City Manager's Office]

Memorandum

TO Honorable Members of the City Council Government Performance and Financial Management Committee: Cara Mendelsohn (Chair), Gay Donnell Willis (Vice Chair), Tennell Atkins, Adam Bazaldua, Adam McGough, Paul Ridley, Chad West

SUBJECT May 22, 2023 Government Performance and Financial Management (GPFM) Committee, Development Services Department Monthly Update for April 2023

This memorandum is to provide an update to the Government Performance and Financial Management (GPFM) Committee on Development Services technology, residential and commercial metrics, and recruitment updates. All metrics are reported in business days rather than calendar days. Development Services is still experiencing a lack of access to various ITS related files due to the Ransomware Attack. On June 13, 2023 the Development Services Department Monthly Update intends to provide all metrics in calendar days.

Technology

The land management software implementation project is in progress. An official kick-off was hosted on May 1, 2023 and formal introductions and project overview, expectations, and timelines were discussed. The focused group included Development Services, ITS support, Gartner Consulting, Accela and other key Departments have been continuously meeting and are progressing through established tailoring sessions.

The Department has implemented an Emergency Response Plan to address the Ransomware attack that has impacted our permitting and daily operations. Notifications were sent to customers informing them of our acceptance of paper submittals only. In addition, the team identified all previously submitted permits and proactively implemented solutions that will allow the continued issuance of building permits. The team continues process permits that had been submitted prior to the attack.

Residential Metrics

In April 2023, the total number of New Single-Family permits that were initiated decreased from 194 to 133 from the previous month. This represents a 31% decrease from the previous month's customer permit submittals. The team issued 135 New Single-Family permits for the month of April 2023. The decrease in permit submittals may be due in part to increase financing market loan rates or business owners may have been focused on Federal Tax processing timelines. This decrease is consistent with the trends of residential permit submittals for the past two years.

New Single Family Permits Created
The Median number of days staff spent on processing New Single-Family permits to issue has decreased from 9 days to 7 days. This represents a 2-day decrease for all permits issued for the month. This is the lowest this metric has been since October 2020. The New Single-Family Plan Review Team has not experienced any permitting backlogs since November of 2022.

Residential New Single Family Permits-Staff Time Median Days (calendar days) to Issue YTD Comparison
Of all the New Single-Family permits submitted for the month of April, the initial reviews were performed within the Department's 15-day performance goal. The New Single-Family Plan Review Team performed all initial reviews within the Department's established performance goals 100% of the time and performed all initial reviews within one (1) day. New Single-Family permits submitted for the month of April 2023 that did not require revisions from the applicant, and were issued in the same month, equated to 5 median days. The Residential Single-Family VIP (RSVP) permitting team issued 40 permits the same day they were submitted for the month as compared to the reported 33 from the previous month.

The third-party reviewers continue to be utilized, and staff anticipates partnering with them as the summer months approach and expanding their services to assist with residential and commercial projects. The Self-Certification Plan Review Program Draft is being finalized by the Matrix Group. The Department intends to share recommendations with stakeholders and the Development Community for feedback in the next couple of months after the report is finalized.

Commercial Metrics

The Department received 5 new commercial, 28 commercial additions, 275 commercial remodels, 36 complex commercial Q-Team, and 14 minor commercial Q-Team project permits in April 2023. All new commercial/remodels initial reviews were performed within 15 days and met the Department's performance goal. All Q-Team initial reviews were performed within 6 days. The Department is working proactively with the Data Business Intelligence Department to develop and launch a forward facing commercial permitting dashboard.

- Perform periodic analysis of cost efficiency for outsourced services.

- Develop procedures for invoicing technology contracts.

- Incorporate contractual changes as contracts are renewed.

Background

SAP Software Solutions is used by 14 City departments to collect about $1.1 billion in revenues annually. Dallas Water Utilities and Information & Technology Services are responsible for SAP Software Solution's continuity, availability, integrity, and confidentiality of data.

In March 2013, both departments outsourced daily operational activities to Deloitte for application-managed services and a hosted infrastructure provided by a subservice organization, NTT Managed Services Americas.

In March 2020, the City used the first of two renewals to extend the contract to March 2022 for $12,292,440. In March 2022, the City used the second two-year renewal to extend the contract to March 2024 for $10,832,200.

Both departments committed to regularly validating vendor services, billing accuracy, and reducing supply chain risk.

Observed Conditions

A third-party risk management policy to address performance, continuity of services, and cybersecurity risk of vendors and their subservice organizations is not in place.

Analysis of contract performance and cost efficiency are not available.

A long-standing relationship with the vendor, dated service level agreements, and imprecise, incoherent documentation of contract provisions reduced the quality and accountability of vendor services.

Internal procedures for invoice payment verification for technology contracts are informal.

Objectives and Conclusions

1. Is Information & Technology Services evaluating third-party risk?

   Indeterminable. The Deloitte contract does not address risks of vendor's responsibility for their subservice organization and significant use of offshore services for application managed services. No service interruptions have been noted. Currently, there is no established third-party risk management policy to address performance, continuity of services, and cybersecurity risk of vendors and their subservice organizations. (See Observation A.)

2. Is contracting with a third-party efficient for these services?

   Indeterminable. Cost savings could not be identified because reporting metrics do not match service-level agreement metrics. Cost efficiency analysis cannot be completed because there needs to be clarity on resource, infrastructure, or application needs moving forward. (See Observation B.)

3. Is the City monitoring the vendor for services rendered (compliance), quality (documentation), and accountability (monitoring)?

   Generally, yes. Information & Technology Services and Dallas Water Utilities management are aware of the services being rendered and use professional judgment to escalate incidents. The contract has been in place since 2013 and a long-standing relationship with the vendor, dated service level agreements, and imprecise, incoherent documentation of contract provisions reduced the quality and accountability of vendor services over time. (See Observation C, Observation D, Observation E.)

4. Are contract billings accurate?

   Generally, yes. All test invoices were traced to contracted amounts and all test financial transactions in the AMS Advantage Financial accounting application matched invoices and contract amounts. However, current internal processes for contract billing verification are informal. There are no Standard Operating Procedures for technology contracts. (See Observation C, Observation D, Observation E).

Audit Results

Both City Council Resolution 88-3428 and Administrative Directive 4-09, Internal Control prescribe policy for the City to establish and maintain an internal control system. The audit observations listed are offered to assist management in fulfilling their internal control responsibilities.

Observation A: Third-Party Provider Risk Management

A third-party provider risk management policy is not in place. Third-party provider risk management policy elements are to:

- Establish a comprehensive inventory of third-party providers in the City.

- Evaluate how far down the supply chain third parties should be considered (e.g. fourth-parties such as NTT Americas and offshore by Deloitte).

- Assess, manage, and monitor ongoing contract services.

- Respond and complete recovery and planning and testing.

If a third-party provider fails to perform as contracted or suffers its own unfortunate events, the City cannot escape blame including financial penalties.

Exhibit 1:

The Elements of Third-party Provider Management Processes
Source: International Professional Practices Framework, Supplemental Guidance, Auditing Third-party Risk Management, Figure 4

For example, a review of all user accounts used in Fiscal Year 2020 for the incident, change, and service requests identified eleven system-level generic accounts and 19 vendor user accounts. Out of 19 vendor user accounts, 13 user accounts serviced less than 20 tickets over the course of Fiscal Year 2020. Most noted observations belonged to vendor offshore services and could indicate a rotating roster of vendor personnel whose access is not vetted, exposing the City to additional security risks. These same individuals can contribute to additional cost for software and database license costs with a rotating roster.

Criteria

- ❖ International Professional Practices Framework (IPPF) Practice Guide, Auditing Third-party Risk Management

- ❖ National Institute of Standards and Technology, Cybersecurity Security Framework -Supply Chain

- ❖ Standards for Internal Control in the Federal Government, Principle 10 – Design Control Activities

Assessed Risk Rating:

High

We recommend the Director of Information & Technology Services:

A.1: Develop a third-party provider risk management policy that inventories at a minimum mission essential function provider, incorporates cybersecurity, continuity of operations, and regular disaster recovery testing for all outsourced procurements.

Observation B: Cost Efficiency

Opportunities for cost savings could not be identified. An estimate by the Office of the City Auditor for Fiscal Year 2020, indicates that $60,000 could have been recovered for untimely resolution, $1,000 for missing root cause analysis, $500 for poor documentation on a change ticket.

Part of why the cost recovery could not be finalized was the disparity between the metrics on the report provided by Deloitte and the metrics stated in the City of Dallas Support Delivery Manual 2013. The report provided by Deloitte on incident management and resolution is measured in days, while the City of Dallas Support Delivery Manual 2013 service level agreement on cost recovery measures in hours. Since the reported metric is in days and service metrics are in hours, the delays in resolution time for incident and service requests cannot be correlated.

Further research into the total cost of the SAP application services suggests that the City may need a comprehensive review of the cost to identify potential cost savings. Exhibit 2 shows the auditor's estimate for the total cost of SAP for 2020 and 2021.

Exhibit 2:

Total Estimated Cost of SAP Application Services

Cost-Type	April 1, 2020 – March 31, 2021		April 1, 2021 – March 30, 2022
	Budget	Actual	Budget	Actual

* Actual cost for project fees is based on payments during the audit period that were identifiable. This may not include any invoices not paid, in dispute or not yet received.

City contracts with vendor Mythics for Oracle database enterprise licenses, meaning that the cost of Oracle is for all databases, not just SAP. The auditor used 20 percent of the total cost in the table above based on the SAP application architecture and the estimated number of SAP administrators.

Criteria

- ❖ Administrative Directive 4-05 Contracting Standards and Procedures Section 5.3.11.

- ❖ City of Dallas Support Delivery Manual, Appendix I.

- ❖ Standards for Internal Control in the Federal Government, Principle 10 – Design Control Activities

Assessed Risk Rating:

High

We recommend the Director of Information & Technology Services:

B.1: As each contract is renewed or a contract extension is considered, perform a comprehensive review to validate cost efficiency.

Observation C: Compliance

Compliance activities were not executed as follows:

- Vendor noncompliance with the contract's service level agreements.

- Information & Technology Services noncompliance with user entity controls defined by the subservice organization in their System and Organization Controls (SOC). See Exhibit 3 below.

Exhibit 3:

What is a SOC?

SYSTEM AND ORGANIZATION CONTROLS

SOC is a verifiable auditing report performed by Certified Public Accountant concerning systematic controls and their effectiveness.

SOC 1: Type I, Type II

Addresses internal controls over financial reporting. Type I is a point in time. Type II is testing of controls over a duration of time. Type II is more reliable.

SOC 2: Type I, Type II

Most sought after report dealing with an information technology service provider. Report is an examination of controls using one of more of the Trust Service Criteria. Type I states controls exist. Type II provides assurance of controls over a period of time.

SOC 3

Summary of SOC 2 and is not as detailed, technical and does not provide sufficient information.

Source: Infosecurity Magazine, SOC 1, 2, & 3 Audit Reports and Why You Need One

Service Level Agreements

Noncompliance with service level agreements for application managed services existed for Fiscal Year 2020. The service level agreement in the City of Dallas Support Delivery Manual 2013 states that incident tickets should be resolved within three business days (the longest time) and documented with a root cause analysis. Service requests should be coded correctly and limited to security provisioning. All other changes to the SAP application, even if it is to restore the system requires change management.

- Thirty-six percent of incident tickets were open for more than three days, with an average of 24 days for ticket resolution.

- Forty-seven percent of service requests were not related to access provisioning or password requests, as defined in the contract. Service requests should be using security provisioning.

- Change tickets, on average, were open for seven months. This indicates that either change requests were not being completed timely or not categorized properly.

Although weekly status reports are provided by Deloitte, Information & Technology Services does not review the reports. Instead, Information & Technology Services relies on professional judgment and a long-standing relationship with Deloitte personnel for compliance. Per Information & Technology Services, timeliness is based on whether City department personnel escalate directly to Information & Technology Services. Also, the City of Dallas Support Delivery Manua1 2013 has not been updated since 2013 to reflect the changes in monitoring Deloitte.

User Entity Controls

Information & Technology Services and Deloitte could not demonstrate the implementation of user entity controls recommended by the subservice organization, NTT Managed Services Americas. The subservice organization specified in its Statement of Controls Type II, User Entity Controls requirements for City's infrastructure, data maintenance, security provisioning, and cybersecurity compliance. NTT Managed Services Americas hosting service is designed so that user entities (the City) establish their own internal controls or procedures to complement those provided by NTT Managed Services Americas.

Criteria

- ❖ City of Dallas Support Delivery Manual 2013

- ❖ NTT Americas Statement of Controls Type II, User Entity Controls

- ❖ Standards for Internal Control in the Federal Government, Principle 10 – Design Control Activities

Assessed Risk Rating:

Moderate

We recommend the Director of Information & Technology Services:

C.1: Review the service level agreement components for relevancy, applicability, and feasibility of demonstration by the vendor as the contract renewal process is occurring.

C.2: Provide sufficient training to Information & Technology Service managers to ensure they can continually demonstrate verification and validation of compliance by the vendor.

C.3: Consider a rotating schedule of employees responsible for contract monitoring to enhance knowledge sharing and continuity and reduce familiarity with vendor.

C.4: Incorporate any user entity controls suggested by the vendor or subservice organizations, if applicable, or establish compensating information security controls to complement vendor services.

Observation D: Quality

Contract monitoring documentation is not easy to follow. Imprecise, incoherent documentation reduces assurance and verification of the quality of services rendered.

Starting in 2020, when administrative actions were prepared for variable costs, the supporting documentation referred to prior change orders from prior years. Prior contractual activities did not provide clarity into the current requested services. References did not clarify the type of service, project duration, the quantity of vendor offshore personnel, and expectations for services. The current landscape for hosted infrastructure and application managed services changed, and reference to a prior statement of work was inaccurate and/or incomplete.

Also, placing reliance on the vendor numbering system for change orders, statements of work, and/or appendices led to further confusion. The interchangeability, non-sequential use of these documents, and lack of clarity on which documents to apply made it difficult to confirm whether all contractual activities were tracked.

In addition, detailed knowledge of contract terms, invoices, and tracing of billings to the contract is not codified into standard operating procedures to augment City Controller's Office general invoicing procedures.

A potential cause for inconsistent documentation could be Information & Technology Services has not participated in the City's new D-COR contract monitoring training series. As of this audit, Information & Technology Services Finance personnel responsible for contract management could not provide D-COR completion certificates.

Criteria

- ❖ Administrative Directive 4-05 Contracting Standards and Procedures, Section 6.1.12

- ❖ Standards for Internal Control in the Federal Government, Principle 10 – Design Control Activities

Assessed Risk Rating:

Moderate

We recommend the Director of Information & Technology Services:

D.1: Participate annually in City's D-COR training to understand how to track contract costs consistently.

D.2: Develop internal standard operating procedures so contract activities unique to Information & Technology Services are performed consistently, and more than one individual retains such knowledge.

D.3: Consider a rotating schedule of employees providing financial invoicing services to enhance knowledge sharing and continuity.

Observation E: Accountability

Operational activities to demonstrate internal accountability and monitoring were not present.

- Weekly status reports consistently show that incident, change, and service tickets are aging and remain unresolved for extended periods of time.

- Periodic service level agreement compliance reviews, annual vulnerability assessment results, disaster recovery testing, security reviews, or application license audits were either incomplete or not available for review. The last disaster recovery test was completed in 2019, and the 2021 testing was canceled due to the political climate at the disaster recovery site.

- Occurrence of periodic meetings to validate vendor accountability for services rendered was not verifiable. Meetings included Executive Steering Committee (monthly); Incident Prioritization Meeting (weekly or as needed); Change Advisory Board Meetings (weekly/as needed or according to an agreed upon schedule); and Monthly Status Meeting for Service Level Agreement (reviews for violations or debits to be applied).

- Invoices have limited information and cannot be used to confirm services without assistance from the Information & Technology Services Finance Manager. Deloitte's invoices do not have sufficient information on the nature and extent of services provided and the number of hours used or service detail.

A potential cause for incomplete monitoring could be that the City of Dallas Support Delivery Manual 2013 is no longer current. The manual has not been updated since 2013 and its incident matrix does not reflect Information & Technology Services' ongoing updates to incident management and response. The City of Dallas Support Delivery Manual 2013 also does not reflect the new process of using Service Now to track incidents, change orders, and service requests, which represent most of the application-managed services performed by Deloitte.

Criteria

- ❖ Administrative Directive 4-05 Contracting Standards and Procedures, Section 5.3.11

- ❖ City of Dallas Support Delivery Manual, Section 3.81. Governance Structure, and Appendix I.

- ❖ Standards for Internal Control in the Federal Government, Principle 10 – Design Control Activities

Assessed Risk Rating:

Moderate

We recommend the Director of Information & Technology Services:

E.1: Refer to recommendation C.1.

E.2: Develop internal standard operating procedures to standardize regular audits of application (software) and database licenses, and continuity activities.

Background

Dallas Water Utilities is the primary data owner of SAP Applications System. Information & Technology Services is responsible for hardware and software support. The current operational structure has limited internal resource support from both departments. Most of the support is outsourced to Deloitte. Deloitte uses offshore personnel and subservice organization, NTT Americas (Secure 24), to provide hosted infrastructure—a cloud-based data center.

Both departments have acknowledged that they are developing a Request for Competitive Sealed Proposal (RFCSP) for another potential vendor.

Deloitte services are broken down into two components: application managed services and hosted infrastructure. Application managed services involve resource enhancement where SAP incident, change, and service requests are routed through the City's service desk to Deloitte's service desk.

Upon receipt of the ticket, Deloitte Consulting executes based on the service level agreement metrics defined in the City of Dallas Support Delivery Manual 2013. Most of the application-managed services are completed offshore, which ensures 24-hour response.

In addition to ticket processing, Deloitte Consulting completes "major enhancement" or "projects" which require more than 80 hours and need approval by the City's change management board. These additional costs are tracked through contract supplemental agreements.

Deloitte Consulting provided hosted infrastructure (cloud computing) through its subservice organization, NTT Americas. Hosted infrastructure data centers are in Michigan. Both data centers are classified as Tier 4, including full redundancy for higher availability.

Contract History and Summary

The City contracted with Deloitte Consulting in March 2013. The contract was approved by City Council for $35,041,449 for a period of seven years to end in March 2020. The $35,041,449 includes:

- Hosted Infrastructure – $3,467,793 annually for seven years totaling $24,274,549.

- Managed services – $1,538,129 annually for seven years totaling $10,766,900.

The contract's purpose was to provide advantages in the following areas:

- Improved efficiencies.

- Continuity of business operations.

- Mitigation of risks related to utility support.

- Improved implementation capability of enhancements to meet business needs.

- Improved accountability and control.

- Ability to support new initiatives including governance transparency and strategic planning.

- Significant improvement in the quality, quantity, and timeliness of information used in decision-making.

- Service level-driven performance agreements.

In March 2020, the City used the first of two built-in two-year renewals (April 2020 to March 2022) in 2020 for a total cost of $12,292,440 as follows:

- Hosted Infrastructure – $1,443,720 annually for two years totaling $2,887,440.

- Managed Services – $2,250,000 annually for two years totaling $4,500,000.

- Other Projects – $4,905,000

In March 2022, the City used the second two-year renewal (April 2022 to March 2024) for a total cost of $10,832,200.

- Hosted Infrastructure - $1,542,300 annually for two years totaling $3,084,600.

- Managed Services - $2,763,800 annually for two years totaling $5,527,600.

- Other Projects - $2,200,000.

The contract changes and amendments were tracked in 31 supplemental agreements including the two supplemental agreements for contract extensions (SA#27) and (SA#31).

Revenue

Many departments within the City use the SAP application to collect revenues. The main user is Dallas Water Utilities to bill and collect water and sewage activities. Other application users are Dallas Fire Rescue, Dallas Police Department, and Aviation. Most transactions completed through SAP application are online through the customer portal and IVR gateway payment verification. Exhibit 4 shows the distribution of revenues for Fiscal Year 2022.

Methodology

The audit methodology included: (1) interviewing personnel from Dallas Water Utilities and Information & Technology Services; (2) reviewing policies and procedures, the Texas Local Government Code, applicable Administrative Directives, contracts, supplemental agreements, and best practices; and (3) performing various analyses. In addition, all five components of Standards for Internal Control in Federal Government were considered.

We conducted this performance audit in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain sufficient, appropriate evidence to provide a reasonable basis for our findings and conclusions based upon our audit objective. We believe that the evidence obtained provides a reasonable basis for our findings and conclusions based on our audit objective.

Interest Earned

- Interest earnings tapered off through FY 2020-21 due to overall interest rates dropping to historic lows
  - Interest earned for the 2nd quarter of FY 2022-23 is the highest of the last five fiscal years
  - Interest earnings are expected to trend higher through the remainder of FY 2022-23 and into early FY 2023-24

Asset Composition

- Priority is to first ensure enough liquidity on hand to meet debt payments and expenditures and then minimizing the amount of excess cash in overnight funds to keep the portfolio appropriately sized

- Our objective, as we seek to right-size the portfolio, is to maintain a minimum cash/overnight investment target of approximately 10%

- Currently, we see value in commercial paper within the 0-1 year area, while US Treasury and Government Agencies are generating more value in the longer dated maturity ranges

Overview

- Review purpose and background
- Discuss KBHCCD master plan financial projections
- Discuss Fair Park improvements financial projections
- Review upcoming debt issuance
- Review timeline
- Outline next steps

Purpose

- Update GPFM Committee on the financial projections for KBHCCD Master Plan and Fair Park improvements

- Discuss the timeline for debt issuance

Background

- KBHCCD Master Plan process and interaction with Fair Park began in 2019 with discussions about the potential renovation/expansion of the center to remedy $600M - $700M of deferred maintenance and to allow the City to keep pace with its competitive set

- 2021 legislative session allowed Chapter 334 (Brimer Bill) to include Fair Park in a split use of the 2% increase in Hotel Occupancy Tax (HOT) assuming an expansion process of the convention center was underway

- Dallas City Council approved a resolution authorizing an 80/20 percent split of the 2% increase in HOT that was approved by voters under Proposition A in November 2022

Background

- Chapter 334 of Texas Local Government Code requires issuance of debt within one year of Brimer Bill tax levy, which began on January 1, 2023

- City staff, bond counsel, and financial advisors are working toward a short-term financial transaction by September 2023, a larger bond sale in 2024, and potential transactions in future years

- Issuing short-term debt via private placement in the first-year will effectively leverage bonding capacity, meet the needs of project design and other initial contract awards, and maintain coverage requirements for future bond refundings

Background – Financing Timeline

Completed as of December 2022

- PFZ Resolution
- Proposition A Passage
- Venue Fund Resolution
- Chapter 44 Amendment
- Reimbursement Resolution

Scheduled for Completion in 2023

- KBHCCD and Fair Park Financial Analysis with CCO
- Initial Revenue Bond Sale within Statutory 365 Days
- Initial Procurements and A&E Design

2024

- Second Revenue Bond Sale
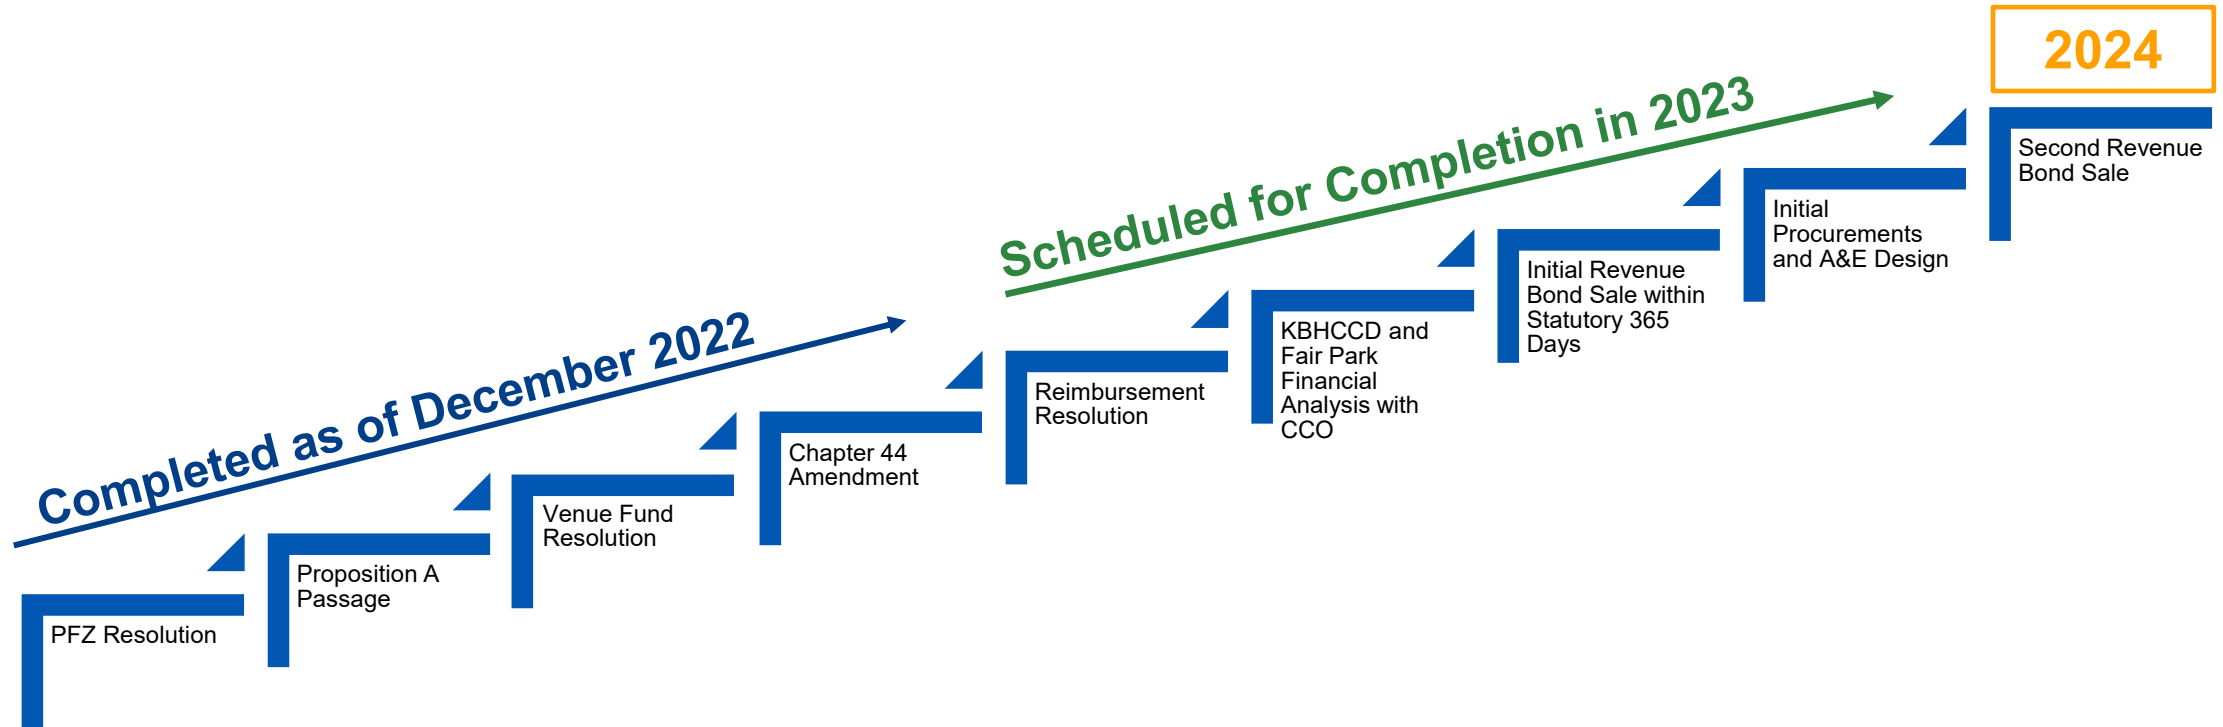

KBHCCD Master Plan Financial Projections – Pledged Revenues

The City will pledge the following to secure bonding related to the KBHCCD Master Plan:

Financing Tool	Estimated Revenue	Description
Project Financing Zone (PFZ)	Approximately $2.2B total over 30 years	Approved November 2021 to redirect State Hotel-Related Incremental Taxes (includes hotel occupancy, sales, alcohol and beverage taxes) to City of Dallas thru 2051 for the convention center expansion project only
2% HOT Increase (Brimer Bill)	Approximately $1.5B total over 30 years	Approved by voters in November 2022 with a collection period through 2052 for the convention center expansion project and Fair Park (80% allocation to KBHCCD)
Local HOT (7%)	Approximately $114M annually	Authorized by City Ordinance 31554 (CR 20-937) to distribute 4.718 percent of local HOT for debt service and capital and operating use for the convention center, and for dissemination for tourism promotion and arts and culture
Net Event Revenues from KBHCCD Activities	TBD	Includes revenues generated at the KBHCCD through client use agreements, audio-visual, food and beverage, technology, parking and electrical, net of all operating costs

Note: Bonds for Convention Center Venue Project and Fair Park Venue Project are payable solely from the Pledged Revenues and are not payable from City's General Fund.
KBHCCD Master Plan Financial Projections

As revenue continues to grow, surpassing debt service funding requirements, there are additional options for excess funds:

- Operating and maintenance costs

- Prepayment funds to pay down debt faster

- Capital improvement funds for future improvements

- Issuance of additional debt

Section 2: IT Operations

IT Operations provides information and status updates on the IT operations to include outages and incidents impacting city operations. Source data is drawn from the City's ServiceNow platform which was implemented in April 2021 to better manage incident reporting and resolution and to better track and control requests for IT services. ServiceNow documents incidents and service requests and is used by technicians and departments alike to submit, track, manage, and resolve pending requests and issues.

NOTES:

1. Severity 1 and Severity 2 incidents are the most severe and most likely result in degraded services or outages that impact the ability of City departments to fulfill their missions.

2. This chart tracks the number of reported incidents by department, along with the total number minutes the incident(s) potentially impacted them.

3. These data points are extracted from ServiceNow based upon input by city IT technicians. Our analysis reveals that there are incidents which are resolved but have not been timely or appropriately closed out within the ServiceNow platform, resulting in artificially inflated resolution timeframes. ITS is working with IT service delivery managers to improve documented processes to ensure timely updates to ServiceNow in order to accurately reflect the actions for the incident and to provide a more representative experience. As is demonstrated by the reduction in MTTR over the past several months, our efforts in this area are having positive results.

NOTES

1. This chart provides the trendline for the average mean time to repair (MTTR), an industry standard for tracking the timeliness of resolution on reported incidents.
2. In April 2023, the MTTR continued downwards averaging just over 1800 minutes, on a count similar to February of 2023 where the MTTR was in the 3400-minute range.
3. Diligence by the technicians to document and resolve tickets in a timely manner is the primary driver of the reduction in MTTR.

NOTES

1. Major outages are identified as Severity1 that have significant impact to City services or Department's ability to perform critical functions and last over 4 hours in duration. As we mature the process this definition will be better scoped around impact and less around duration.

2. Outages with #value are incidents that had over 4 hours of impact, however, are incomplete of details to identify full impact to departments.

3. April saw an increase in both average time to repair and total outage time for Major Incidents compared to March. April average MTTR of 42.1 hours compared to March of 24.4 hours. April total outage 715 hours compared to March which had 487 hours

4. April saw 18 Major incidents, 11 critical and 7 high, a decrease of 2 over March of 20, 10 critical and 10 high.

Section 4: Cybersecurity Programs

A. Awareness Training

Security Awareness training is measured on an annual basis. Over the last several years ITS has observed a generally positive trend in risk scoring associated with annual employee training. Beginning with each new fiscal year the City will conduct a new set of security awareness courses to meet not only the best practices, but State of Texas House Bill 3834 requirements for all government employees.

However, each year we see new or enhanced requirements from the Texas State Legislature as the risk environment evolves and becomes increasingly more threatening. As such, our security awareness training program must evolve to reflect the latest requirements and latest threats and it is critical that the security awareness training is completed each year. The information below illustrates the enrollment and completion efforts of employee training over the course of the year. For FY 2021-22 the City completed 99% of 18 training campaigns covering HIPAA, PCI, and Cybersecurity.   The FY 2022-23 security awareness training campaign on January 25, 2023, and ITS is tracking its progress and working with City employees to ensure completion.

- o   Note employees with less than 25% of job function on technology are not required to complete cybersecurity training.

In addition, ITS continuously applies best practices to the employees around phishing and their ability to recognize and appropriately handle phishing incidents. Campaigns designed given real world scenarios, typically taken from recent events are sent out to the employee population to test their ability to distinguish and act. This provides feedback to the employees as well has increased the actual amount of true phishing reported. As well, a "Report phishing" button added to user's Outlook has increased both the numbers of test phish and actual phishing emails.

B. Situational Awareness

Annually ITS assess the overall Security posture of the organization based upon the NIST Cybersecurity Framework (CSF). Each category within the NIST CSF is evaluated for the current level of maturity and expectant maturity level. This process uses current and projected technologies and documented standards and procedures to complete the process. ITS utilizes both internal and external resources to conduct assessments. The results of the assessments are used by ITS to develop security strategy for cybersecurity and privacy. The below figure outlines the maturity model for the CSF. While the TAR does not provide our scores from our self-assessment, ITS can provide this information to Council members and discuss the assessments in depth as requested.

Capability Maturity Model Levels

NIST Cybersecurity Framework Functions	Level 1 Initial	Level 2 Repeatable	Level 3 Defined	Level 4 Managed	Level 5 Optimized
Identify	Little to no cybersecurity risk identification.	Process for cybersecurity risk identification exists, but it is immature.	Risks to IT assets are identified and managed in a standard, well defined process.	Risks to the business environment are identified and proactively monitored on a periodic basis.	Cybersecurity risks are continuously monitored and incorporated into business decisions.
Protect	Asset protection is reactive and ad hoc.	Data protection mechanisms are implemented across the environment.	Data is formally defined and protected in accordance with its classification.	The environment is proactively monitored via protective technologies.	Protection standards are operationalized through automation and advanced technologies.
Detect	Anomalies or events are not detected or not detected in a timely manner.	Anomaly detection is established through detection tools and monitoring procedures.	A baseline of "normal" activity is established and applied against tools/procedures to better identify malicious activity.	Continuous monitoring program is established to detect threats in real-time.	Detection and monitoring solutions are continuously learning behaviors and adjusting detection capabilities.
Respond	The process for responding to incidents is reactive or non-existent.	Analysis capabilities are applied consistently to incidents by Incident Response (IR) roles.	An IR Plan defines steps for incident preparation, analysis, containment, eradication, and post-incident.	Response times and impacts of incidents are monitored and minimized.	The capabilities of all IT personnel, procedures, technologies are regularly tested and updated.
Recover	The process for recovering from incidents is reactive or non-existent.	Resiliency and recovery capabilities are applied consistently to incidents impacting business operations.	A Continuity & Disaster Recovery Plan defines steps to continue critical functions and recover to normal operations.	Recovery times and impacts of incidents are monitored and minimized.	The capabilities of all IT personnel, procedures, technologies are regularly tested and updated.

C. Data Protection & Privacy

1. Endpoint Protection

Endpoint protection is one component to the organization's ability to handle daily malware. All devices needing connection to the internet are subject to attacks. Attacks are mitigated through technologies monitoring the systems in real time reacting and responding to those attacks. Technologies like Firewall and Endpoint Detection and Response all are in place to respond to those attacks. Below is the current status for endpoint attack metrics.

2. Email Screening

The City of Dallas receives and send millions of emails a month. Phishing is an attack vector that is utilized by bad actors in the form of social engineering, as a means to gain internal access to the network. This can then be used to introduce malware, ransomware, and other malicious software to adversely affect City services. Below provides a picture of mail messages processed and remediated prior to user reception.

Section 5: IT Infrastructure

IT Infrastructure information and status updates on efforts to upgrade and improve the IT infrastructure used by the City to reduce technical debt, better meet current needs, and build for future service needs.

A.   Resiliency - Disaster Recovery and Business Continuity

Resilience is essential in the City's IT environment because it ensures that the system can continue to function effectively and efficiently even when unexpected events occur. This can include things like hardware or software failures, power outages, natural disasters, and cyber-attacks. Lack of resiliency impacts Local government to prolonged outages, data loss, and security breaches. These can be costly in terms of services to residents, loss of public trust, and regulatory penalties.

Resiliency can be achieved through a combination of redundancy, fault tolerance, disaster recovery planning, and proactive monitoring and maintenance. By designing and implementing resilient IT systems, the City can minimize the impact of disruptions and maintain business continuity, ensuring that critical applications and services remain available. ITS has begun evaluating opportunities to design the City's IT environment to improve resilience.

A critical component of Disaster Recovery and Business Continuity practices is backing up critical data, testing data backups, and conducting exercises to ensure that data backups can be successfully utilized to restore business services.

B. Technical Debt

As a part of the City's IT Infrastructure improvement direction, a proactive approach has been taken that identifies, tracks, and will communicate the potential risks and costs associated with technical debt to City departments. The City's Technical debt has accumulated over time, reducing the IT effectiveness for services. This must involve setting aside a time and resources, specifically for the deficit. By ITS developing a comprehensive technical debt management strategy, organizations can prevent the accumulation of technical debt, reduce development costs and timelines, and improve system stability and maintainability over the long term. This leads to a long-term sustainability and maintainability.

On April 28, 2023, the Information & Technology Services (ITS) Department completed Phase I of a project to fully document and baseline the City's IT environment. Over the period from January 2023 to April 2023, ITS employed the services of consulting and strategy firm IT Cadre to create the authoritative collection of the Current State of the City of Dallas technical landscape. The diagram and associated data simplifies the business and information technology complexity by capturing the following:
- A mapping of the business process to the technologies by functional area;
- Insight into the technologies by capability, topology, strategic designation, and technical debt; and,
- An end-to-end operational visual with insight into business process anomalies and technology areas of concern

Over the course of the first quarter of 2023, ITS worked with the vendor and key stakeholders to develop the Current State Visualization. The Current State visualization is intended to capture the baseline systems and services across all forty-seven (47) city departments including ITS. The IT Cadre Visualization Engineering® methodology drives a unique collaboration with small groups to review a visualization diagram designed to remove the complexity and present a simple comprehensive view. The diagram is a representative view of detail that allows stakeholders to visualize the operations, comprehend the challenges so that leadership can drive the City of Dallas towards a stronger operating unit.

The project deliverables provide a comprehensive baseline of the City's current IT environment which ITS is using to document the health of each system or service utilized by the City, to identify risks associated with the health of those systems, and to readily opportunities to remediate technical debt present.

The current state was validated by the ITS Department and by each of the City departments through a series of focused reviews. The reviews validated the business functions performed by each department along with the systems and services that support those business functions. Information captured during the reviews is captured and retained in both a visualization, as well as a database:

ITS is currently working with IT Consultancy Gartner, Inc. to conduct a structured review of each system and service and capture the results into the model.

This work provides the City of Dallas with an authoritative baseline of operations and provides focus on the tier of applications for criticality, costs associated with the operations and maintenance, interaction between systems and processes, age of services relative to End-of-Life, Version Life Extension, and Capability provided. From the initial review of documentation to the final validation by each department, the goal was to collect the maximum amount of data possible with current accurate status.

The example below shows the exact location where data attribute associated with a particular system can be found on the diagram. It should be noted that the "Technical Debt" collection is still in progress and that this information will be conducted based on the information (i.e., version, end of life and extension estimation) collected within this current state model.

As this project progresses and specific goals and metrics are developed for the remediation of technical debt, it will be updated in future TAR reports.

C. Audit

Currently the ITS department is working through several audits that impact technology services. Below represents the Audit remediation efforts and stages.

Atmos Dallas Annual Rate Review Filing
[Nick Fehrenbach, Manager of Regulatory Affairs, Budget and Management Services]

Overview

- Update City Council on Atmos Energy Corporation's (Atmos) Dallas Annual Rate Review (DARR) filing

- Review proposed settlement agreement

- Discuss options

- Provide City Manager's recommendation

- Next steps

2023 DARR Filing

- Atmos filed its 2023 DARR rate case on January 13, 2023*

- Requested annual rate increase of $20.6 million from within the city of Dallas

  - Average residential bill to increase by $6.10/month or 6.36% with gas costs

  - Average commercial bill to increase by $20.30/month or 3.41% with gas costs

- Requested rates to become effective June 1, 2023

2023 DARR filed on January 13 due to January 15 being Sunday

2023 DARR Filing

- The 2023 filing is the largest increase requested by Atmos under the DARR tariff since it was adopted in 2012
  - Although Atmos has had some increases in operating costs, the driving factor in this rate increase is Atmos' investment in new plant
  - In the past year Atmos has:
    - Spent over $180 million in new capital investment
    - Replaced 64 miles of pipe within the City of Dallas
      - Reflects approximately 2% of pipeline in Dallas
    - Replaced 3,200 steel service lines within the City of Dallas

2023 DARR Filing

- City amended DARR ordinance May 13, 2020 in response to the COVID-19 Pandemic
  - The following language was added to the ordinance
    - However, should a declaration of emergency be issued affecting the City of Dallas by action of the United States federal government, the government of the State of Texas, the County of Dallas or the City of Dallas which is in effect during the 135 day evaluation period, the 135 day evaluation period shall be extended an additional 92 days (:Extended Period")
  - The Governor has issued an emergency declaration monthly pertaining to the COVID-19 pandemic. The most recent declaration being April 15, 2023
    - Therefore the review period of the 2023 DARR is extended 92 days from May 28, 2023 to August 28, 2023
    - Staff recommends moving forward as negotiations are now complete

2023 DARR Filing

- City retained Garrett Group LLC (Garrett) in 2017 to review gas rate cases such as the current DARR filing

- After reviewing the filing and supplemental information requested from Atmos, Garrett provided a draft report and preliminary findings, including recommendations for several adjustments to filing

- Staff shared Garrett's preliminary findings with Atmos

- Staff (assisted by Garrett and outside legal counsel) met with Atmos on multiple occasions via virtual conference and telephone to negotiate a settlement
    - Reached proposed settlement on May 5, 2023

2023 DARR Proposed Settlement

- Atmos to increase rates in Dallas by $18.2 million annually
- Rates to become effective September 1, 2023
- Average residential bill will increase by $5.73 per month
- Average commercial bill will increase by $14.11 per month
- Atmos will reimburse City's rate case expense
  - Amount determined after adoption of settlement

Options

1) Adopt proposed settlement agreement
   - Atmos to increase rates by $18.2 million annually
   - Rates to become effective September 1, 2023
   - Atmos to reimburse City for rate case expense

2) Adopt rates at some amount less than the proposed settlement
   - Atmos could appeal rates to RCT
   - Atmos could implement requested increase of $20.6M in rates subject to refund while appeal was pending

3) Deny rate request, keeping current rates in effect
   - Atmos could appeal rates to RCT
   - Atmos could implement requested rates subject to refund while appeal was pending

City Manager's Recommendation

- Adopt proposed settlement agreement as negotiated by staff (Option 1)
  - Saves residents $2.4 million off of requested rates
  - Atmos to pay City's rate case expenses
  - Rates to become effective September 1, 2023
  - Avoids uncertainty of litigating and appeal at RCT
  - Avoids additional rate case expense which would be passed on to customers

Next Steps

- City Council will consider ordinance to set rates to be charged by Atmos on May 24, 2023

SUBJECT Dallas 365 Performance Measures

As part of our annual budget development process, we review the performance measures included in Dallas 365 and edit them as necessary. As you are aware, we have aligned them each month as part of the Budget Accountability Report (BAR).

If you have any suggestions for staff to use as we update the Dallas 365 measures for FY 2023-24, now is the time to do so. I have attached the list of current Dallas 365 measures. Also attached is a list of other department performance measures that are routinely tracked. This list may be considered if you want to suggest potential changes to Dallas 365.

Please provide any input that you may have regarding Dallas 365 to Cecilia Scheu,

GFOA Distinguished Budget Presentation Award
[Budget and Management Services]

Memorandum

DATE May 22, 2023

TO Honorable Members of the Government Performance and Financial Management Committee: Cara Mendelsohn (Chair), Gay Donnell Wills (Vice Chair), Tennell Atkins, Adam Bazaldua, Adam McGough, Paul Ridley, Chad West

SUBJECT GFOA Distinguished Budget Presentation Award

On April 25, 2023, the Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA) presented a Distinguished Budget Presentation Award to the City of Dallas – Office of Budget and Management Services (BMS) for its annual budget for the fiscal year that began October 1, 2022.

GFOA established the Distinguished Budget Presentation Awards Program in 1984 to encourage state and local governments to prepare budget documents of the very highest quality that reflect both the guidelines established by the National Advisory Council on State and Local Budgeting and GFOA's best practices on budgeting. This is the highest award in governmental budgeting. To receive this award, a government unit must publish a budget document that meets program criteria as a policy document, as a financial plan, as an operations guide, and as a communication device. This is the 24th consecutive year that the City of Dallas has been recognized by GFOA for the annual budget document.

Our goal is to continually improve the budget document for the benefit of residents, City Council, and City staff. Comments and suggestions are always welcome.

If you have any questions or comments, please contact me or Janette Weedon, Director of Budget and Management Services.

FINANCIAL FORECAST REPORT

The Financial Forecast Report (FFR) provides a summary of financial activity through March 31, 2023, for the General Fund and other annual operating funds of the City. The Adopted Budget column reflects the budget adopted by City Council on September 28, 2022, effective October 1, 2022, through September 30, 2023. The Amended Budget column reflects City Council-approved transfers between funds and programs, department-initiated transfers between expense objects, approved use of contingency, and other amendments supported by revenue or fund balance.

Year-to-date (YTD) actual amounts represent revenue or expenses/encumbrances that have occurred through the end of the most recent accounting period. Departments provide the year-end (YE) forecast, which projects anticipated revenues and expenditures as of September 30, 2023. The variance is the difference between the FY 2022-23 amended budget and the YE forecast. Variance notes are provided when the YE forecast is +/- five percent of the amended budget and/or if YE expenditures are forecast to exceed the amended budget.

General Fund Overview

The General Fund overview provides a summary of financial activity through March 31, 2023.

Revenues	1,706,814,187	$1,727,562,642	1,250,733,683	1,730,725,453	3,162,811
Expenditures	1,706,814,187	$1,727,562,642	837,494,783	1,720,711,976	(6,850,666)
Ending Fund Balance	$308,405,349	$308,405,349		$332,262,043	$23,856,694

Fund Balance. Through September 30, 2022, the audited unassigned ending fund balance for FY 2021-22 is $329,048,566 and includes FY 2021-22 YE savings. As of March 31, 2023, the beginning fund balance for YE forecast reflects the FY 2021-22 audited unassigned ending fund balance and usage of Contingency Reserve in the amount of $6,800,000 as approved by the City Council on December 14, 2022. This allocation from Contingency Reserve was used to establish the 2022 Severe Weather and Flooding Fund to facilitate repair of insured city facilities.

Revenues. Through March 31, 2023, General Fund revenues are projected to be $3,163,000 over budget primarily due to fines and forfeitures and miscellaneous revenue.

Expenditures. Through March 31, 2023, General Fund expenditures are projected to be $6,851,000 under budget primarily due to salary savings from vacant uniform and non-uniform positions across all General Fund departments and reimbursements from the American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA), partially offset by uniform overtime expenses and temporary staffing costs.

FY 2022-23 Amended Budget. City Council amended the General Fund budget on:

- May 10, 2023, by ordinance #32456 in the amount of $20,748,455 due to additional sales tax revenue, miscellaneous revenue from auto pound sales, and intergovernmental revenue from DFW Airport city partners. This allocation will be used for the maintenance and operation of various departments and activities.

5 Fines and Forfeitures. Fines and Forfeitures revenue is projected to be $1,358,000 over budget primarily due to incoming revenue from bankruptcy settlements and the close-out of the SafeLight Auto Red Light Running fund ($1,532,000) and increased wrecker fee collections at the Dallas Auto Pound ($1,127,000), partially offset by declines in citations filled with the court ($1,100,000).

VARIANCE NOTES

General Fund expenditure variance notes are provided below for expenditure categories with YE forecast variances of +/- five percent. The Amended Budget column reflects department-initiated transfers between expense objects.

1 Personnel Services. Personnel services are projected to be $17,123,000 under budget primarily due to salary savings associated with vacant uniform and non-uniform positions across General Fund departments, partially offset by uniform overtime expenses in Dallas Fire-Rescue ($8,080,000), Dallas Police Department ($16,932,000), and non-uniform overtime expenses. DPD overtime expenses are due in part to elevated attrition in FY 2021-22, consistent demand for police services (P1 call volume), focused support for 911 ($2.0 million) and the speeding/racing initiative ($1.8 million), as well as increased response/deployment to "hot spots". DPD uniform overtime expenses are partially offset by a budgeted American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) reimbursement. DFR uniform overtime expenses are due to higher than anticipated attrition requiring backfill to meet minimum staffing standards, offset by American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) reimbursement.

Hotel Occupancy Tax

The City collects hotel occupancy taxes (HOT) on hotel, motel, bed and breakfast, and short-term rentals in the city limits. The HOT rate in Dallas is 15 percent of the cost of the room (not including food served or personal services not related to cleaning and readying the space for the guest)—six percent goes to the state, and nine percent goes to the City. Of the nine percent to the city, two percent is to be used for the Convention Center Expansion and the Fair Park Facilities Venue Projects and seven percent is allocated for Visit Dallas, Office of Arts and Culture, and Kay Bailey Hutchison Convention Center Dallas. HOT is the largest single revenue source for the Kay Bailey Hutchison Convention Center, and data is typically updated every two months.

Love Field Enplanements

An enplanement is when a revenue-generating passenger boards an aircraft. Enplanements are the most important air traffic metric because enplaned passengers directly or indirectly generate 80 percent of Aviation revenues. Typically, Aviation generates only 20 percent of total operating revenues from non-passenger-related activities.

Building Permits

Building permits (required for all construction in Dallas) can provide insight into upcoming activity in the housing market and other areas of the economy. Permits are a key indicator of the confidence developers have in the economy; likewise, a decline can indicate developers do not anticipate economic growth in the near future. In some cities, this measure may be a leading indicator of property tax value growth, but in Dallas, the property tax forecast model includes other variables like wage/job growth, housing supply, gross domestic product, population, vacancy rates, and others.

DALLAS 365

The Dallas 365 initiative aligns 35 key performance measures to our eight strategic priorities. The department responsible for each measure is noted at the end of the measure's description, and last year's performance is included if available. If FY 2022-23 data is not available, N/A is listed.

Year-to-date (YTD) and year-end (YE) targets are presented for each measure. YTD targets may vary based on seasonality of the work. Each month, we compare 1) the YTD target with the actual performance for the current reporting period and 2) the YE target with the department's forecasted performance as of September 30, 2023.

Year-to-Date		Year-End Forecast
✔	26 On Target	✔	31 On Target
!	2 Near Target	!	0 Near Target
✖	7 Not on Target	✖	4 Not on Target

Measures are designated "on target" (green) if actual YTD performance is equal to or greater than the YTD target. If actual YTD performance is within five percent of the YTD target, it is "near target" (yellow). Otherwise, the measure is designated "not on target" (red). The same methodology applies to YE forecasts. Variance notes are provided for each red measure.

FY 2022-23 Dallas 365
VARIANCE NOTES

11 OPS has identified the factors impeding the successful performance of temporary staffing to support procurement process (<$50k) within 15 business days goal. The current formula being used to calculate this metric is skewed, as it includes solicitation requests that are not informal solicitations (IFS) requests into the equation which distorts the accuracy of the output. Additionally, OPS recognizes that most of the requests received are not submitted correctly or with the appropriate forms and documentation from departments, so to mitigate that issue OPS plans to implement citywide service level agreements (SLAs) for IFS that will specify the correct IFS process, documentation and forms needed. OPS is also working towards bringing on additional temporary staff for further support. This new initiative is in effect for the current fiscal year.

15 DFR continues to experience increased EMS response times due to several factors. Emergency call volume remains extremely high; in March there were over 25,000 responses, over a 35 percent increase from February. EMS transport rates continues to be over 60 percent, compared to historical rates of 40-45 percent. Increases in call volume and transport rates result in a decrease in the number of available units, while an increase in unit hour utilization, results in increased response times.

17 Overall violent crime has increased by 3.24 percent for March 2023. With the focus on interrupting and disrupting violent people and places, DPD strives to continue to see a reduction in crimes against persons. DPD continues to focus on Violent Crime reduction throughout the city with violent crime down by 2.7 percent YTD. Total Crime is down 2.6 percent YTD by 669 less offenses with an increase in Aggravated Assaults. This is due to single incidents having multiple complainants. DPD is using all available resources to help investigate these offenses to determine the cause.

18 The increase in high-priority calls is a contributing factor to increasing response times. High-priority calls have increased by 6.21 percent compared to the same time last year. This is in addition to re-evaluating the call volume to determine if new substations are needed and the 10-hour shift study to help determine if this benefits the residents of Dallas.

24 LIB circulation has experienced a decline due to a considerable number of customers failing to return technological devices. Customers are charged for unreturned items and are presently unable to borrow any further library materials until the devices have been returned. LIB is reviewing technology inventory and policy to ensure devices are available for other library customers.

28 PKR experienced a 20 percent increase in attendance for March 2023, similar to the previous year in March 2022. Staff are engaging directly with middle and high schools, promoting programs and collecting survey information from teens to address programming needs. Additional system wide teen programming is being offered and recreation centers are providing "late night" type of programming on alternate days in varying locations.

35 The participation percentage has been impacted by SBC employee turnover and staffing levels. Additionally, participation was impacted by COVID due to a six-month delay of program and recruitment. SBC Workforce Initiatives is now fully staffed to ensure data is represented accurately and anticipates an increase in attendance with three new contracts anticipated to execute in late May/early June.

BUDGET INITIATIVE TRACKER

The Budget Initiative Tracker reports on 35 activities included in the FY 2022-23 budget. For each initiative included in this report, you will find the initiative number, title, description, status, and measure. At the end of each description, the responsible department is listed. Each month, the responsible department provides a current status for the initiative and indicates whether the initiative is "complete" (blue circle), "on track" for completion by the end of the fiscal year (green check mark), "at risk" of not being completed by the end of the fiscal year (yellow exclamation mark), or "canceled" (red x).

In the Spotlight

Access to healthy food for vulnerable communities in southern and western Dallas remains to be a significant challenge. With food production, distribution, and land use accounting for 30 percent of global GHG emissions, the rising temperatures and changing precipitation patterns create more frequent droughts that result in losses to crops and livestock across the nation and the globe. In these extreme events, there has been a noticeable lead to increased food pricing. The Comprehensive Food & Urban Agriculture Plan prioritizes Dallas communities' access to local food sources by outlining the current state of agriculture and offering strategies for sustaining existing efforts, improving resources, creating pathways, and supporting expanding urban agriculture projects throughout the city of Dallas.

With over 35 different farms, community and commercial, the Office of Environmental Quality & Sustainability and the Office of Procurement has established a pilot project to provide small growing units for food desert homes and will be deployed on a rolling basis with the hopes of targeting the majority of the population to have access to healthy, affordable food by 2030.

PROCESS IMPROVEMENT

The Process Improvement Team seeks to build a culture of continuous improvement throughout the City of Dallas, partnering with departments to leverage data and research-based best practices for transformative operational success today while laying with foundation for future innovation.

The Process Improvement Team applies the DMAIC problem solving approach to dig into process issues and deliver quantifiable, sustainable results. DMAIC is a five-phase method:

- •Define – Define the problem
- •Measure – Quantify the problem
- •Analyze – Identify the cause of the problem
- •Improve – Solve the root cause, develop structured improvements, and verify improvement
- •Control – Maintain the gains and pursue perfection

The Process Improvement Team has focused on building awareness among departments, creating an organization-wide framework for process improvement, and establishing a cross-functional knowledge base for greater inter-departmental coordination. The following table summarizes current Process Improvement projects for FY 2022-23 which will be reported as Complete, On Track, Delayed, Cancelled, or Pre-Kickoff. The DMAIC phase may be referenced in the status update. The Improve phase is often the most challenging to implement because it involves eliminating the root cause and implementing improvements. This phase often extends the project timeline.

The Baseline for Key Performance Indicators is the starting point of metric to engage success for completing projects. Additional projects will be added to the list throughout the course of the fiscal year.

Classified Employee Turnover for Fiscal Year 2022

A mass exodus from government work
By McKenna Moore, Editor at LinkedIn News

People have been leaving government administration jobs in the U.S. en masse since the beginning of the pandemic — many in search of better pay, more flexibility or more exciting positions. In the last two years alone, there has been a 15.6% decrease in the pace at which workers are starting public sector jobs relative to the level of talent flow in the opposite direction, according to new LinkedIn data.
The trend is most prominent in Sunbelt metros such as Tampa, Fla., Charlotte, N.C. and Dallas-Fort Worth.

Update to Boards and Commissions Audit- City Manager's Actions
[Mayor and City Council Office]

Memorandum

DATE May 22, 2023

TO Honorable Chair and Members of the Government Performance and Financial Management Committee

SUBJECT Update to Boards and Commissions Audit - City Manager Actions

The purpose of this memorandum is to provide an update on the Audit of City Boards and Commissions observations and the agreed actions from the City Manager. In 2021, the City Auditor's Audit of City Boards and Commissions ("the Audit") reported a "lack of one focal point for boards and commissions oversight, with the responsibility for ensuring compliance with the City's Charter and Code, is a contributing factor for many of the observations identified in their audit report, including: racial and ethnic diversity, annual reports, member qualification reviews, and on-time reporting of meeting documentation." Sixteen City departments and offices are responsible for coordinating more than 50 Boards and Commissions (B&C), including costs related to staff time and materials to prepare for and facilitate meetings.

ACTION UPDATES

The City Manager has taken direct action and steps to address the observations found in the Audit and are summarized within this memo and described in the enclosed documents.

Observation A.1. Joint efforts between the Senior Coordinator, the City Secretary's Office, and the City Attorney's Office continue to ensure B&C training and resources encourage compliance with City Code and charters. Quarterly compliance checklist along with annual desk audits began FY 2022-23.

Observation B.1 The total operational cost for each B&C, which include staff costs and other operational expenses have been collected from the departments and will be presented before the committee, in October. As of June 1, 2022, departments have been directed to track staff time dedicated to support a B&C in the payroll management system Workday.

Observation C.1. The department directors of boards and commissions identified as lacking clearly defined membership roles and responsibilities, have been presented with amendment recommendations to specific ordinances and charters. The proposed amendments may assist in ensuring all B&Cs have clearly defined roles and responsibilities. Departments are currently drafting proposed amendments with the City Attorney's Office. The proposed amendments should address the challenges with high vacancy rates, meeting attendance, agenda setting, participation, and meeting decorum.

Observation D.1. The City Manager's Office maintains its position that it does not have a statutory role to ensure the racial and ethnic membership of B&Cs reflect the racial and ethnic make-up of the city's population.

In collaboration with the Communications, Outreach, and Marketing Department (COM), the Senior Coordinator has developed and shared city-wide and Council District-specific outreach content to assist with the promotion of encouraging applicants that reflect an equitable and diverse B&C membership, in English and Spanish. The B&C outreach content is also available in multicultural languages, upon request.

Observations E.1, E.2, F.1, F.2. The Senior Coordinator began conducting the annual desk audits and received the first quarterly compliance checklist to ensure B&Cs comply with the City Code, Chapter 8, and the Texas Open Meetings Act (T.O.M.A). Continued efforts to improve administrative policies and procedures, checklists, templates, and trainings for the B&C Coordinators are examined monthly.

On March 10, 2023, the City Manager distributed the Board and Commission annual reports to the Mayor and City Council, which are also posted and available on the City's website [here]. Each report submitted has be reviewed and distributed per City Code.

Fiscal year 2023 launched enhanced transparency efforts. The B&Cs agendas posted with the City Secretary's Office are available in Legistar. City meeting agendas, minutes, and agenda packets are accessible to the public in one central location and easily searchable online through Legistar. Also, the revamped Boards and Commissions website is another enhanced resource to the public that ensures transparency. Each B&C webpage is presented in a standardized format to ensure all B&C webpages are consistent, provides the mission, purpose, authoritative power, and duties for the B&C. The webpages also list B&C upcoming meeting dates that conveniently link to the meeting content in Legistar.

Observation H.1 Update. The Senior Coordinator has shared and discussed recommendations for potential City Code and charter amendments with department directors. The proposed B&C amendment recommendations are unanimously supported by the responsible department directors and recommended Staff amendments will be drafted for consideration by the City Council.

Observation H.2 Update. The City Secretary distributes a monthly vacancy report to City Council and a memorandum of concern regarding vacancies. The Senior Coordinator currently reviews the monthly report and identifies B&Cs with a vacancy rate above 40 percent and the racial and ethnic make-up of the B&C, to identify membership that may not proportionately represent the City's make-up. A policy and procedure has been developed to ensure assistance is provided to City Council to increase the available pool of applicants.

Operational processes and procedures continue to ensure the proposed deliverables detailed in the August 22, 2022 GPFM Committee memorandum are addressed. The B&C work plan summarizes the proactive processes and procedures that have been initiated, developed, or implemented. The Senior Boards and Commissions Coordinator has assumed the responsibility for ensuring compliance with City requirements that were fragmented and shared among multiple offices, departments, and positions. Joint efforts between the City Manager's Office, the City Secretary's Office, and the City Attorney's Office are ongoing to ensure compliance with City requirements; transparent documentation and communication of board and commission operations; and monitoring of the costs to operate boards and commissions.

The Senior Coordinator continues to develop initiatives that encourage and maintain engagement of the appointed members. On December 3, 2022, the City Manager hosted the inaugural Boards and Commissions Appreciation Luncheon that celebrated more than 400 volunteers appointed to City Boards and Commissions.
