WHEREAS, since 1974, the City of Dallas has served as the local agency for service delivery in Dallas County via contractual agreement through Texas Health and Human Services (formerly Texas Department of State Health Services); and

WHEREAS, there is a need for the Nutritional Program for Women, Infants, and Children ("WIC") funded through the Texas Health and Human Services Commission. The WIC program provides avenues to improve the health of low-income women, infants, and children up to age five who are at nutritional risk by providing nutritious foods to supplement diets, information on healthy eating, breastfeeding support, and referrals to healthcare and other community programs. Research data reflects how WIC improves infant feeding practices, reduction of healthcare costs, decreases infant death rates, improves school readiness, and increases high school graduation rates; and

WHEREAS, on September 23, 2020, the City Council authorized a five-year agreement with Texas Health and Human Services Commission to administer the WIC Program for the period October 1, 2020 through September 30, 2025, in an amount not to exceed $13,601,737.00 by Resolution No. 20-1432; and

WHEREAS, the execution of this new five-year agreement will extend the Women, Infants and Children Program through September 30, 2030.

Now, Therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF DALLAS:

SECTION 1. That the City Manager is hereby authorized to execute a five-year contract with Texas Health and Human Service Commission (Contract No. HHS001503400005, Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance (CFDA) Nos. 10.557 and 10.561) for the Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children Program in the amount not to exceed $140,536,168.00 for the period October 1, 2025 through September 30, 2030 and execute any and all documents required for such acceptance and receipt of funds, approved as to form by the City Attorney.

SECTION 2. That the City Manager is hereby authorized to establish appropriations in an amount not to exceed $140,536,168.00 in the FY26-FY30 Women Infant and Children Grant Funds, Fund F721, Department MGT, Units TBD, various Object per Schedule A.
