Amendments to Chapter 17, re: Neighborhood Market Annual Permit Fee
[Carl Simpson, Assistant City Manager (I)]

Memorandum

CITY OF DALLAS

DATE February 18, 2022

TO Honorable Members of the Quality of Life, Arts and Culture Committee

SUBJECT Amendments to Chapter 17, re: Neighborhood Market Annual Permit Fee

This memorandum provides an update on the Neighborhood Farmer's Market fee structure and the requested correction to City of Dallas Ordinance Chapter 17, Section 17-10.2 as related to the Neighborhood Market annual permit fee.

Background

Through Texas, Senate Bill 617 passed in 2019 the annual permit fee for a Neighborhood Farmer's Market was capped at $100. As a result of the City of Dallas 2021 Fee Study process the full cost recovery fee of $270 was inadvertently inserted in the fee schedule and published in September 2021. At this time staff is requesting that the fee schedule be corrected and updated to reflect the State of Texas maximum permit fee of $100.

To date approximately twenty (20) Farmer's Market permits have been sold at $5400 and the Division plans to refund or credit customer's accounts $3,400 once Council approval is received.

Budget Implications:

The fee change represents a potential revenue reduction of ~$81,000 to ~$30,000 based on 300 permits sold annually during the previous year.

Revenue Code-Consumer Health	Volume-billed	Current Revenue @270 fee	Revenue @100 fee	Reduction in revenue
7493 – Temporary Food Vendor Permit (Neigh. Farmers' Market)	300	$81,000	$30,000	$51,000

Memorandum

CITY OF DALLAS

DATE February 22, 2022

TO Honorable Chair and Members of the Quality of Life, Arts & Culture Committee

SUBJECT Upcoming Office of Arts and Culture Agenda Item #23 on the February 23, 2022 City Council Agenda – Resolution Authorizing Acceptance of a $250,000 National Endowment for the Arts Grant for the Culture of Value Program

On Wednesday, February 23, 2022, the City Council will consider a resolution authorizing the acceptance for a National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) grant for $250,000. This represents the largest NEA grant awarded to the City of Dallas. This grant is part of the federal agency's American Rescue Plan funding to support the recovery of local economies and communities through artists.

If accepted, this funding will be administered through the Office of Arts and Culture to continue the department's 2020 pilot Culture of Value pandemic relief program, which awarded micro-grants of up to $3,000 to support small projects by ALAANA (African, Latinx, Asian, Arab, and Native American) artists and cultural organizations. This successful pilot advanced the 2018 Dallas Cultural Plan priorities around equity, diversity, and support for artists, and 46% of artists funded were new applicants.

The new NEA-funded Culture of Value program is anticipated to open for applications in summer 2022. Prior to the application opening, the Office of Arts and Culture will conduct outreach in partnership with the Arts and Culture Advisory Commission and neighborhood stakeholders.

If you have questions, please contact Jennifer Scripps, Director of Arts and Culture.
