Background: Current Operations

- Code officer to district deployment is closely aligned with number of complaints
- Service is data driven and does not account for areas with high need and low reporting
- Relies heavily on staff to proactively enforce violations

Background: Current Operations

- Officers may have up to six census tracts, resulting in the following:
  - Overextended Officers are unable to work proactively
  - Limited ability to thoroughly assess neighborhoods
  - Can give the impression of selective enforcement when only working complaints
  - Unable to comprehensively address all violations on a given property

Neighborhood Code Resource Deployment

*Data contained above is reflective of site inspections and does not include any follow up inspection processes. *Data collected from December 19, 2019 – September 30, 2020.

NCD addressed over 87,000 Code Concerns in FY19/20 – Heat

Мар

三中卫抗

- Top Ten violations total 68,603
- Accounts for 78% of the total violations addressed in FY 19/20
- Highest volumes of violations are within the southern sector

2 A Y th

- In March 2020, Neighborhood Code began enforcing, monitoring and educating businesses on the COVID-19 Amended Emergency Regulations
- The following activities resulted from these requirements:
  - 21,575 Site inspections conducted
  - 6,164 Notices of Violation issued
  - 37 Citations Issued for non-compliance
  - 27,199 Additional locations were monitored and educated on COVID-19 safety/awareness, policies, and resources

Operational Concerns of Current Structure

- Code presence not felt in the community or perception that Code and the city does not care
- Inadequate coverage in blighted areas
- Lack of communication, education and/or service in some areas
- Persistent issues require a consistent and targeted approach

Contributing Factors

Proposed-Community Based Approach

- Assign a single officer to each of the 27 identified target census tracts, with the possibility of an additional four officers
- Based on size, some census tracts may require two or more officers

   Colonial Hills (40.00)
   Zoo Creek (49.00)
  - Pemberton Hill (93.03) Glendale Park area (57.00)
- Reduce the officer to census tract ratio for those remaining census tracts within the seven code districts
- Increase proactivity and engagement in targeted areas resulting in 89,624 additional site inspections and improved visibility

Community Based-Target Area Data FY 19/20

- In 27 identified tracts, representing 8% of the 328 total reporting census tracts, the following data has been compiled:
  - 8,804 cases addressed
    - 22% of the total cases for the FY
  - 10,205 notices of violation issued

  - 1,202 citations issued
    - 29% of the total citations issued for the FY
  - 12% of violations found required a citation, this is 7% higher than the overall average for the NCD

Operational advantages

- Reduces area of responsibility for Officers in targeted areas
- Increase efficiencies in service, education, and promoting sustainable impacts
- Optimize staffing resources and productivity
- Promotes community engagement
- Demonstrates a sense of commitment to our communities
- More visibility creating deterrents for violators
  - Illegal dumping, graffiti, litter, etc.

• Texas Constitution provides:

- Taxation must be equal and uniform<sup>1</sup>
- All real property and tangible personal property must be taxed in proportion to its value unless exempt as required or permitted by the Texas Constitution<sup>2</sup>
- Any taxing unit may offer an additional homestead exemption of at least $3,000 for taxpayers disabled or aged 65 or older<sup>3</sup>
- A county, city, or junior college district may freeze or limit a property owner's taxes by adopting a tax ceiling<sup>4</sup>

Tax Ceiling

- A tax ceiling (freeze) sets a limit on the amount of property taxes paid annually
- Texas Constitution allows for a tax limitation (tax ceiling) on the residential homestead of a person who is over 65 or disabled<sup>1</sup>
- Texas Tax Code provides the requirements for implementation and administration of the ceiling<sup>2</sup>
- In future years, the taxable value on a home may go below, but not above, the ceiling amount (unless improvements are made, or the homeowner is no longer eligible)
- A homeowner may transfer the tax ceiling percentage to a new home in the same county, city, or junior college district<sup>3</sup>
- Increases to the tax rate will not change the ceiling, even if voterapproved
- If approved by City Council, ceiling applies only to City of Dallas portion of the tax bill
- Once the tax ceiling is adopted, it cannot be repealed

三型公式

- Seniors often have fixed incomes, making property tax increases difficult to manage
- While 93.4% of over-65/disabled property values have grown in line with the city overall, 6.6% have experienced higher than average growth
- City Council has increased the over-65/disabled exemption by 56% since 2016, while at the same time, the average market value of single-family home increased 41%
- Almost 32% of over-65/disabled homeowners pay $0 in city property tax, an increase since 2016 due to City Council increasing the exemption
- As values increase further, City Council may continue to increase tax relief

- Other protections and options for over-65 or disabled taxpayers
  - Quarterly payments without penalty and interest
    - Taxpayer with fixed income may request to pay property taxes in four equal payments
    - Must submit initial payment and request by January 31
  - File tax "deferral" if unable to pay
    - Deferral allowed on residence homestead until taxpayer no longer owns or occupies the home
    - Protects property from being sold for back taxes during ownership
    - Property taxes continue to accrue during deferral period and interest will be assessed at the rate of 5% per year
    - Once deferral ends, all accrued taxes, penalty, and interest are due within 180 days

- Property taxes are regressive, requiring low-income taxpayers to pay more of their income in taxes than high-income taxpayers
  - Home values are much higher as a percentage of income for low-income property owners
- Tax exemptions such as the City's over-65/disabled exemption are a flexible and progressive approach to property tax relief: while they benefit every homeowner, they provide a larger benefit to homeowners with lower value homes
- Tax ceiling is not limited to low-income seniors
  - Offers across-the-board tax relief for all taxpayers over-65 or disabled at all income levels
  - Homeowners with higher values will receive more tax relief
- Reducing tax burden on over-65/disabled homeowners shifts City's property tax burden to younger homeowners and renters of all ages
- Increasing fees to offset foregone revenue is not recommended

- Considerations
   Faced challenges balancing the budget in prior fiscal years for existing services and expanding core services
- City will face cost increases including:
  - Inflation
  - Market-based pay adjustments for public safety and merit increases for non-uniformed employees
  - Employee health benefit cost
  - Need for new/expanded programs
  - Debt cost from future bond programs
- Continue to face challenges funding infrastructure (streets, alleys, sidewalks, etc.), facility, and equipment needs
  - Five-Year Infrastructure Management Plan (IMP)
  - Priority Improvement Zones and Aligned Street Lighting Plan
  - Fleet Management Study

- Flexibility for future City Councils
- City property tax revenues are already capped by SB2 and cannot grow by more than 3.5% without an election
- State legislative actions impact local control and ability to deliver services

Next Steps

- Receive feedback on over-65/disabled tax relief
- Consider change to FMPC at City Council agenda meeting on 5/26/21 or 6/9/21
- Submit changes to appraisal districts no later than 6/30/21 to implement with tax year 2021 (FY 2021-22)

Average Home Value Growth

Average Home Value Growth

Historical Value of Exemptions ($ in billions)

School Districts – Tax Ceiling

- An over-65/disabled homestead exemption qualifies property owner for a tax ceiling on school district taxes
  - School district taxes on property owner's home cannot increase as long as he or she owns and lives in it
  - The ceiling cannot expire
- The tax ceiling is set at the amount paid in the year the property owner qualified for the over-65/disabled exemption
- If a property owner buys another home in Texas, he or she may transfer the percentage of school tax paid based on the former home's school tax ceiling to the new home
- The ceiling transfers to a surviving spouse, as long as he or she is age 55 or older and the residence homestead was his or her homestead on the date of the spouse's death
- The surviving spouse may transfer the percentage of school tax paid based on the former home's school tax ceiling to a new home
- Applicable to all school districts in Texas

Texas Tax Code 11.26(a)

School Districts – Tax Ceiling

- Does the tax ceiling apply to Dallas Independent School District (DISD)?
  - Yes, the tax ceiling applies to all school districts in Texas
- Does DISD calculate the revenue foregone from the tax ceiling? If so, what is it?
  - Yes, the "loss due to ceiling" value is available on the Certified Levy Report and reported annually by Dallas Central Appraisal District (DCAD) and the Dallas County Tax Office
  - This loss is based on different tax rates that existed in the year each taxpayer became eligible for the ceiling, resulting in a "compilation" of the loss, rather than a "calculation" of the loss
  - Loss due to ceiling for Tax Year 2020 was $55.7M

School Districts – Exemptions

- Texas law requires school districts to offer a $25,000 exemption on residence homestead<sup>1</sup>
- Local option homestead exemption allows school districts to exempt up to 20% of the value of residential homesteads from property taxes, in addition to the mandatory statewide exemption of $25,000<sup>2</sup>
- School districts are required to give over-65/disabled homeowners an additional $10,000 resident homestead exemption<sup>3</sup>
- Any school district has the option of deciding locally to offer an additional exemption of at least $3,000 for over-65/disabled homeowners<sup>4</sup>
