

Exhibit A

Senior Corporal Arnulfo Pargas Bio

Senior Corporal Arnulfo Pargas, Jr #8001, also known as “Arnie” to family was born on May 9, 1969 in Dallas, Texas. Arnulfo Pargas married his lovely wife, Antonia Pargas on November 17, 2001. They have 6 children, Anthony, Steven, Alex, Alyssa, Valarie, and Mark. Steven has three daughters, two are twins. His third oldest son, Alex Pargas passed away in 2018.

The oldest sons, Mark and Steven also pursued a career in Law Enforcement as Police Officers with Parkland Hospital.

Arnulfo Pargas graduated from North Dallas High School, which he immediately attended El Centro College, obtaining his Associates Degree in Criminal Justice. He followed his lifelong passion as a Dallas Police Officer in 2001.

Arnulfo Pargas was assigned to Southwest Patrol Division, followed by Northwest Patrol eventually transferring over to Community Affairs. Senior Pargas became a true ambassador serving as the first community liaison with the Unidos Hispanic Outreach Program in May 2017.

Arnulfo Pargas loved sports especially watching his son Mark play baseball. Pargas was a diehard Dallas Cowboys fan. Not sure how this happened but he loved the New York Yankees even though he had never been to New York. He also liked the San Antonio Spurs, especially when Duncan and Robinson were on the team.

Pargas loved his wife Antonia and his family dearly. He has been with her for over 30 years and married for 20 years.

Senior Corporal Arnulfo Pargas was a true servant of God. he served his family, his friends, the Dallas Police Department, and the entire West Dallas community, which he served as a community engagement officer for over 5 years.

Pargas would arrive to the Southwest Station just prior to 8am. He always entered the station sporting his salt and pepper beard, and with a smile on his face, holding a thermal of coffee. Arnulfo Pargas always embraced the community where he worked at, always greeting community members, and saying his favorite saying at restaurants, “buen provecho”.

His spirit for loving life was immeasurable.

Senior Corporal Arnulfo Pargas Highlights:

- Served in the Blue in the School Program.
- First Unidos coordinator liaison with the Unidos program in 2015.
- Served proudly as a community Engagement officer over 5 years in the Lakewest Patrol
- Devoted his time to assist Jaycee Zaragoza Recreation Center with the Senior Program
- Delivered pastries on a weekly basis to our West Dallas community.

- Volunteered his personal time and his family with the Santa Cops Programs for years
- Assisted with the Citizens Police Academy as a facilitator
- He hosted his own Turkey Drive since 2016 at the Stew Pot and served several families during the Thanksgiving Holidays.