Background/History Keep Dallas Beautiful Affiliation

- In 2019 The Department of Code Compliance begin working with Keep Dallas Beautiful (KDB) on several community initiatives.
- In 2020 KDB leadership decided it was time to transition the organization operations to the City of Dallas and Code Compliance would be the proper place.
- Throughout 2020 Code Compliance met with Keep America Beautiful (KAB) the National program office and Keep Texas Beautiful (KTB) the statewide program affiliate office to discuss the transition.
- December of 2020 the Department of Code Compliance received the official acceptance letter from KAB to facilitate Keep Dallas Beautiful as apart of Code Compliance

Carl:

Keep America Beautiful is pleased to accept the City of Dallas Department of Code Compliance's application to revive Keep Dallas Beautiful in the City of Dallas. Keep Dallas Beautiful will soon rejoin Keep America Beautiful's family of over 600 national affiliates.

We recognize that the collective effort of Keep America Beautiful affiliates to End Littering, Improve Recycling, and Beautify America's Communities may be challenging and will require time, resources and hard work. The results our affiliates have achieved over the years — lasting, positive economic, environmental, and social impact — have demonstrated that amazing outcomes will take place by putting to work the Keep America Beautiful behavior change system and strategies, in addition to the best practices that will be shared during your affiliation process.

Keep America Beautiful national staff and trainers are available to work with you in your journey to become a certified Keep America Beautiful affiliate. Your primary point of contact at Keep America Beautiful is Jason Smith the Affiliate Operations Regional Director — West, his contact information is below:

We look forward to working with you to help keep Dallas beautiful and welcoming you as an official affiliate of the Keep America Beautiful Network. Thank you for helping Keep America Beautiful fulfill our vision of creating a country where every community is a clean, green and beautiful place to live. We look forward to our partnership together and great things to come for your community and our beautiful country!

Sincerely,
