BACKGROUND

Texas State Library and Archives Commission (TSLAC) awards competitive grants to libraries across the state to public and academic libraries to support literacy and educational initiatives. The City of Dallas, Dallas Public Library, has been awarded one of these grants.

The TSLAC Special Projects 2022 will provide support for a new Music Equity Program at the Dallas Public Library that will provide access to music education and musical instruments to Dallas residents in neighborhoods with low-income families and higher percentages of people of color. Through group music lessons, the Library will expose children, adults, and seniors to stringed instruments, group play, and performance. The TSLAC Special Projects 2022 Grant will support the hiring of two part-time music instructors and the purchase of instruments. The Music Equity program will be conducted through in person classes located at the Vickery Park Branch Library and the Hampton-Illinois Branch Library.

Interlibrary Loan (ILL) is a service that allows customers to request materials owned by another library system. The Dallas Public Library provides interlibrary loan services with reimbursement from the Texas State Library Commission to cover costs associated with this service. The Texas State Library Commission is disbursing reimbursement payments to Texas public libraries who made interlibrary loan lends in State Fiscal Year 2021. The Dallas Public Library completed 2,448 lends using the Navigator ILL System in State Fiscal Year 2021 and will receive a total payment of $20,000.16.

PRIOR ACTION/REVIEW (COUNCIL, BOARDS, COMMISSIONS)
