STRATEGIC PRIORITY: Quality of Life
AGENDA DATE: October 28, 2020
COUNCIL DISTRICT(S): 3
DEPARTMENT: Office of Arts and Culture
EXECUTIVE: Joey Zapata

SUBJECT

Authorize a contract with Terri Stone for the fabrication and installation of a site-specific artwork at Fire Station No. 46 located at 331 East Camp Wisdom Road - Not to exceed $58,000.00 - Financing: Public Safety (G) Fund (2017 General Obligation Bond Fund)

BACKGROUND

As established in Chapter 2, Article X of Dallas City Code, the Public Art Program of the Office of Arts and Culture works to include works by visual artists in public places of the city using a percentage of City capital improvement projects. Under this program, a commission for artwork at Fire Station No. 46 was initiated through engagement with the Department of Public Works and Dallas Fire Department staff.

Terri Stone was recommended for this Public Art project by the selection panel comprised of art professionals, representatives from the Fire Station No. 46, and representatives from the Department of Public Works.

Artist Background

The Dallas-based artist Terri Stone has completed numerous public art commissions including works for the Dallas Fire Department. With over thirty years of experience, Stone has completed commercial commissions in addition to public art commissions.
