BACKGROUND

Chapter III, Section 1, of the Dallas City Charter provides for a city council composed of 15 members: a mayor who serves for a term of four years, and 14 council members representing single-member council districts who each serve for terms of two years. The terms of all single-member council districts expire June 14, 2021.

Chapter IV, Section 3, of the Dallas City Charter provides the general election to elect members of the city council be held on the first authorized election date after March 1 of each odd-numbered year. For 2021, that date is Saturday, May 1, 2021. Section 3.005(c) of the Texas Election Code requires a May election be ordered not later than the 78th day before election day. For the May 1st general election, the deadline for ordering the election is Friday, February 12, 2021. The City of Dallas will order their May 1, 2021 general election, Wednesday, February 10, 2021; as it is the last city council meeting day to order the election without having to schedule a special meeting.
