STAFF ANALYSIS:

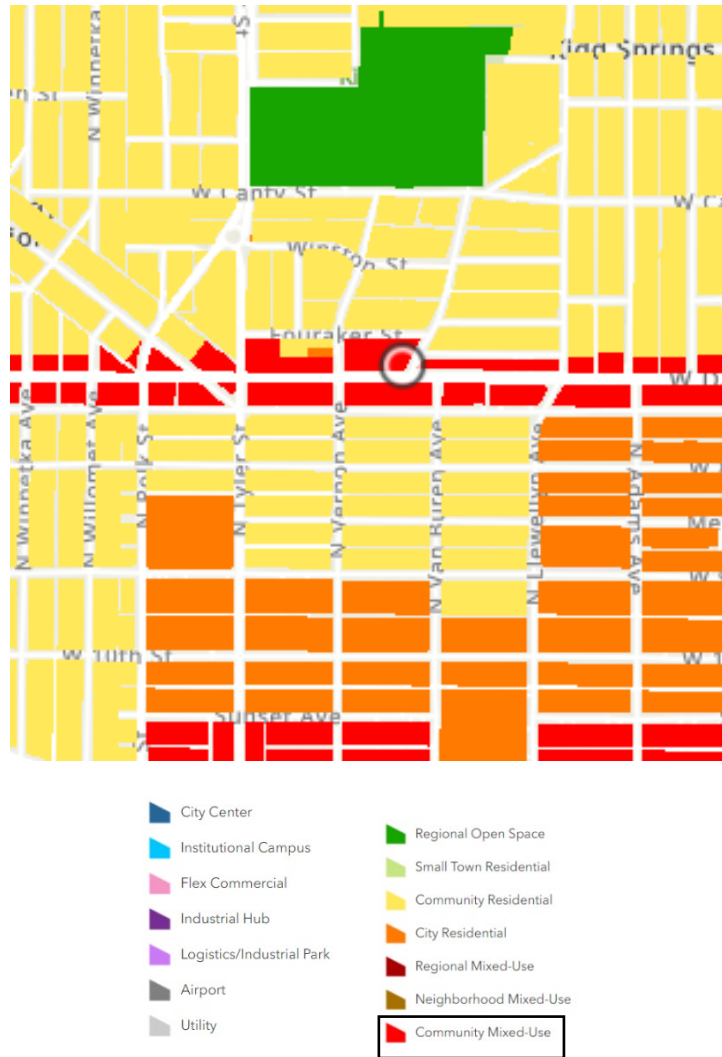

Comprehensive Plan:

ForwardDallas 2.0 is the citywide Comprehensive Plan for future land use in the City of Dallas. Adopted by City Council in September 2024, the plan includes a future land use map and guidance for a future vision of the City of Dallas. It also establishes goals and guidelines for land use and other decisions by the City. According to the City of Dallas's Development Code, the comprehensive plan serves merely as a guide for rezoning requests, but does not establish zoning boundaries nor does it restrict the City's authority to regulate land use.

The proposed termination of the deed restriction and the anticipated multifamily development are generally consistent with Forward Dallas 2.0. Apartments are a primary land use in the Community Mixed Use placetype. It is a less prevalent land use in the area. The subject property is located on a minor arterial, West Davis Street. It is located in the mid-block but adjacent to an existing commercial and single-family residences. The property appears to be currently undeveloped.

The proposed zoning district would limit the height of the building (low-rise) to a height recommended within the placetype. The design recommendations in Forward Dallas 2.0 are applicable in this case, but this general zoning change provides only limited review of the consistency with those recommendations. The existing Subarea 6 includes design standards for building and right of way design. In this placetype, for this future land use, Forward Dallas 2.0 recommends that the design be sensitive to the context of the community and that include community engagement should occur early on and be given significant weight in decision making.

The map below illustrates the site's location within the forwardDallas 2.0 placetype framework.

Placetype Summary

Placetypes describe the long-term vision and desired building and preservation characteristics for different places within the city including neighborhoods, mixed-use areas, employment and industry centers, and open spaces. They provide a high-level guide for the desired mix of land uses, design and the recommended intensity and scale of the different uses. Due to the macro scale of the plan, not all uses or design considerations described within the placetypes may be suitable for every individual property.

The Community Mixed-Use areas are located at major intersections and along key corridors, serving multiple surrounding neighborhoods and attracting retailers and services that require a larger market area. A mix of commercial, office, residential, retail, and services are concentrated adjacent to larger nodes of activity. Commercial centers, commercial corridors, and office parks are representative of this placetype. Residential uses are accommodated within mid-rise buildings, and some mixed-use structures are connected by internal and external pedestrian pathways.

Land Use:

	Zoning	Land Use
Site	Subdistrict 6 Davis Corridor within Planned Development District 830, Davis Street Special Purpose District with deed restriction Z778-181	Vacant (Undeveloped)
North	Planned Development 160, Kidd Springs Special Purpose District	Single Family
South	Subdistrict 6 Davis Corridor within Planned Development District 830, Davis Street Special Purpose District	Commercial
East	Subdistrict 6 Davis Corridor within Planned Development District 830, Davis Street Special Purpose District	Single Family/Commercial
West	Subdistrict 6 Davis Corridor within Planned Development District 830, Davis Street Special Purpose District	Commercial

Land Use Compatibility:

The request site is currently undeveloped. The applicant anticipates utilizing the property for a multifamily development consistent with current development standards. The immediate surroundings are predominantly commercial uses and single-family homes.

Staff supports the requested deed termination, as the site is located adjacent to both commercial and single-family land uses and fronts a minor arterial roadway. The property is also in close proximity to commercial nodes and DART bus service. Multifamily apartments are an appropriate use for the site and will integrate well with surrounding development patterns.

Removing the deed restriction will allow the applicant to develop the property under the current standards established for Subdistrict 6, Davis Corridor, within Planned Development District (PD) 830. The standards within PD 830 include design guidelines that provide an excellent framework for development. The deed restriction was written in 1978 to apply to a warehouse, and warehouses are no longer a permitted use on the site. In accordance with SB 840, the proposed project would continue to follow restrictions similar to Restrictions Nos. 3–8 of the existing deed restrictions after their termination. Eliminating the deed restriction will not diminish the value or character of the community; rather, it will facilitate development that complements the surrounding area and promotes cohesive development patterns. Upon removal of the deed restriction, any future development will remain subject to the standards of PD 830 as well as Chapter 51A.

Market Value Analysis:

Market Value Analysis (MVA), is a tool to aid residents and policy-makers in understanding the elements of their local residential real estate markets. It is an objective, data-driven tool built on local administrative data and validated with local experts. The analysis was prepared for the City of Dallas by The Reinvestment Fund. Public officials and private actors can use the MVA to more precisely target intervention strategies in weak markets and support sustainable growth in stronger markets. The MVA identifies nine market types (A through I) on a spectrum of residential market strength or weakness. As illustrated in the attached MVA map, the colors range from purple representing the strongest markets (A through C) to orange, representing the weakest markets (G through I). The area of request is within an “B” MVA area.
